A WOMAN CONCEALS HER SEX FOR SEVERAL YEARS UNDER EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES.—The Gazette des Tribunaux has a singular account of a woman who effectually concealed her sex for several years, in the meanwhile working and associating with males, without arousing the least suspicion. She was only detected upon her own confession, after having been arrested for some petty theft. She is represented as being tall and athletic, and when in male attire has all the appearance of a man.
