

Fantasia Fair '97

Program Guide

Celebrating over two decades of providing cherished destination, a safe harbor, and point of embarkation.

October 19-26, 1997
Provincetown, Cape Cod

Our statement on the cover refers to the three main functions of Fantasia Fair. A cherished destination: an offering of enjoyment, entertainment, sisterhood and friendship that, in quality and quantity, is available nowhere else. A safe harbor: an opportunity to explore personal issues about our own identity without fear of judgement or rejection. A point of embarkation: a place to begin the rest of our lives.

WELCOME TO PROVINCETOWN

The Provincetown Business Guild, once again, has the pleasure of welcoming Fantasia Fair to our town. The October Affair has become a traditional Fall event and this year is even more special for you as you celebrate your 22nd anniversary.

Provincetown has long prided itself on its diversity, in many areas, and acceptance of various lifestyles and backgrounds. As we figuratively roll out the red carpet for you, please accept our hospitality, above all enjoy this special occasion for your group.

A message from Ariadne Kane, Exec. Director, OIGS

Dear Sisters,

Welcome to the 23rd Fantasia Fair. If you're coming for the first time, you will be awed by the diversity of the programs and activities. If you're a returning Fair-goer, you will be excited by some new programs and directions.

The philosophy of Fantasia Fair has always been to provide a balanced program of activities with focus on the practical, social, and educational aspects of personal growth in your femme gender role. We also want you to be aware and knowledgeable about some of the significant changes in how American society views the cross-gender phenomenon. To that goal, the program planning team has worked industriously to make this Fair a major event in your life.

To enrich your experience in exploring and learning about your femme persona requires an environment that is positively responsive in its relationship with crossgender people. Provincetown, our host on Cape Cod, gives us a unique combination of natural surrounding with the artistic, innovative energies of its diverse residents and lifestyles. It is an optimal space in which one can explore important gender issues. Townspeople are cordial and friendly to us. The innkeepers make sure that your stay at their facilities is comfortable and enjoyable. Take a moment and share with the local folk something about yourself, your interests, and perhaps a little of your own feelings about your gender journey.

Over the 23 years of personal involvement with the Fair, I have learned much about the nature and extent of crossgender behaviors and attendant lifestyles. It has been a very rewarding experience. In some small way, the cross gender movement has had an impact pushing back the frontiers of ignorance and bigotry. I hope that this effect will expand and encompass the full range of gender lifestyles and experiences.

On behalf of the Outreach Institute of Gender Studies, let me extend a heartfelt welcome and wish you a most enjoyable experience at Fantasia Fair.

Warmly,
Ariadne Kane
Executive Director, OIGS

In other words: Relax, participate, have fun... and don't worry! Here are Ten Tips to help you have the maximum good time at the Fair and in P'town.

1. Feel free to leave your inn or apartment at any time in any presentable state of dress.
2. Smile!
3. Explore the town by yourself or with a group. Remember, P'town is a very open community.
4. Take as many photos as you wish, but please ask other Fair participants for their OK before photographing them.
5. Feel free to dine and drink on the town. Most clubs and restaurants will welcome you gladly. When it's time to use the restroom, use the one you feel most comfortable using.
6. Restroom paranoia is not a problem here.
7. Visit and shop the local stores and boutiques. Most will serve you with great courtesy and will accept "his" credit cards. If necessary, don't hesitate to call 911 for police or rescue unit assistance. They will assist you as they would any other citizen.
8. Talk with FanFair staff members at any time, about any problem or concern you may have. We're here to make sure you have a great time!
9. Conduct yourself as a lady, or gentleman (as you prefer). Treat others as you wish to be treated and help us enhance the excellent reputation of Fantasia Fair.
10. Above all else, have an absolutely FABULOUS time!

Registration

Getting to Know You: In essence, each participant who attends Fantasia Fair has a femme identity. Prior to the Fair you will be spending a good deal of time putting together her "image"; but, for now, we need more information about her as a "real" person. This is what our REGISTRATION APPLICATION is all about. This information is designed to do four very important things:

- How to contact you
- Where you want to stay
- When you will be at the Fair
- Your payment status

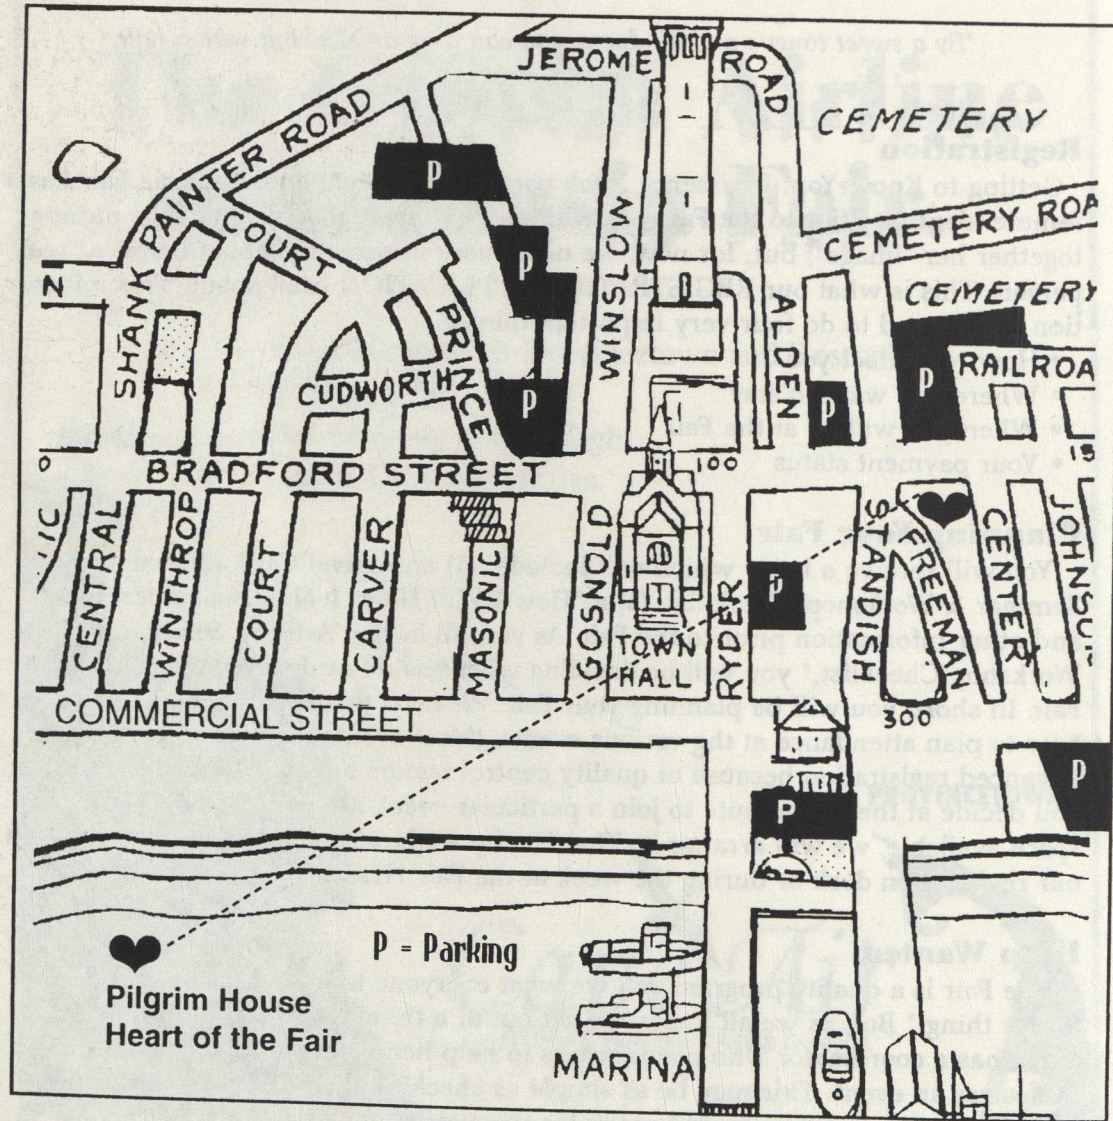

Planning Your Fair

You will receive a letter which will include: (1) an Arrival Card, (2) Activity, Seminar & Workshop Check-list, (3) a "How I Will Help" (volunteer helper) form, and other information prior to the Fair. As you fill in the "Activity, Seminar & Workshop Checklist," you will be deciding what you do or do not want to do at the Fair. In short, you will be planning your Fair. We need this information to know how to plan attendance at the various events. (Most events involving a fee require advanced registration because of quality control factors or limited facility space.) If you decide at the last minute to join a particular event, we understand. If there is space available, we will arrange it. That is why we have sisters ready to help you at our registration desk or during the week at the Fair Headquarters.

Help Wanted

The Fair is a quality program and we want everyone to have a chance to "do the whole thing." But, as we all know, we get out of a thing what we put into it. Each event has a coordinator who needs sisters to help her. Please consider volunteering to hostess an event. This may be as simple as checking the I.D. cards, to making sure that restaurant is open and ready for the guests when they arrive.

Contacting the Registration Office

Until October 15th the contact number is 617-522-6033. No collect calls please. Ask for Weslee or leave a specific message on the recorder. After October 15th, call 508-487-6424 (8AM to Midnight) and ask for Fan Fair Headquarters. If there is no answer, leave a specific message on the recorder, or with the hotel operator, mention Fantasia Fair. We are sorry but we cannot return long distance calls unless you indicate that we can reverse the charges and to whom. The Inns all have a number for receiving messages for guests, and they will try to reach you by leaving a message at the front desk or by posting a note on your door. Most of the Apartments have their own phones.

Initial Check-In

If you have paid all your registration fees by the September 5 deadline, you should receive the following: your reservation confirmation; optional program selection sheet, volunteer sheet and arrival card; and Follies and Fashion Show participation cards which all should be filled out and returned ASAP. On arriving Sunday, Oct. 19, you may go directly to your Inn, get comfortable, leave your car there (parking is always at a premium) and walk to the Pilgrim House, 336 Commercial St (hard to find as it is tucked back up a long walk way). Registration starts at 3 PM. Let the Registration Staff know that you have arrived, pick up your packet, then start mingling with the other attendees and have fun. If you have not paid in full before your arrival, you must go directly to The Pilgrim House to pay the balance before checking in to your Inn.

Sunday, after 7 PM, you will find the Staff at the Welcoming Buffet Reception at the Pilgrim House and they may be able to help you with a partial check-in. If you arrive very late Sunday night, you may go to your designated Inn and, if your payments are in order, the inn keeper should be able to accommodate you. If you think you will not be able to arrive on the day you designated, please call Weslee and give an estimated time of arrival.

The Fair Business Office

The Fair Headquarters, located on the 2nd floor of the Pilgrim House, will be open from 9AM-12 noon and 2-5PM Monday thru Saturday. The volunteer staff will be delighted to answer any questions, help you sign up for paid programs and help as needed. During the period of the Fair the phone number will be 508-487-6424.

Payments, Cash, Credit and Check Cashing

Final payments for the Fair are due September 5, 1997. Any outstanding balance on your registration fee should be mailed in time to be received no later than Sept. 5, to: Registrar, PO Box 02130, Boston MA 02208. If, for any reason, you cannot meet this deadline, you must make arrangements, in writing, with Weslee Avery to pay at the Fair with cash, traveler's checks, Mastercard or Visa (Note: a 5% donation is requested to cover the additional service fee for credit card payments. No personal checks can be accepted at the Fair.). If you still have a balance due on seminars you have chosen, they may be paid for at Registration.

It is extremely difficult to cash personal checks anywhere in Provincetown (including the banks). ATM withdrawals and cash advances on credit cards can be made at most banks.

Registrant Participation & Guests

Any persons may attend any of the public events of Fantasia Fair for the stated admission price. These events include the Diversity Dinner, The FanFair Fashion Show, the Follies and the Fantasy Ball. All other events, luncheon seminars, workshops, receptions, and banquets are open only to registered participants of Fantasia Fair. This policy is designed to preserve the quality of the programs, recognize the support of the registered participants and insure that there is adequate seating space for Fair attendees. Previous Fair attendees will be accepted at these events on a space available basis.

ID Cards

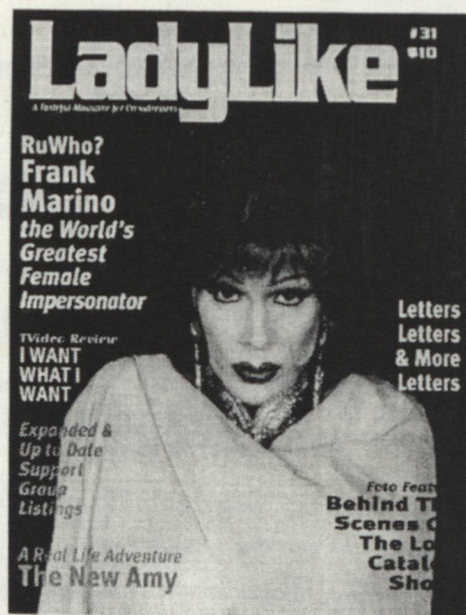

FanFair ID cards will be issued at registration. This card serves as your admission to shows, events, parties, banquets, etc. Please be sure to have it with you at all times. You may be denied admission without the card.

Arrival Card

An Arrival card will be in your packet. Write your arrival date, estimated time of arrival, and mode of transportation to Provincetown on the card. Please return it as soon as possible, along with your Follies and Fashion show participation cards, volunteer, luncheon and seminar choice sheets. Returning these items helps the staff know what to expect and saves you a lot of time at registration.

If you are flying Cape Air, please indicate arrival time in Provincetown so that we can try to meet you at the airport. If a volunteer is not there on your

Everyone is aware that the photographic and video industries earn a fortune from our fantasies. But, is that photo of you, YOU? We don't know. We do know that, with literally million of males in the U.S. and within the statistical population profile of the group attending the Fair, it is unlikely that someone seeing that picture will be able to say "By golly, that looks like good old George" (unless George points it out to them). The Ladies whose pictures you see in the various FanFair publications, all share the same concerns for privacy; they live in the real world as successful men and women. Thus, in order to protect FanFair participants, please adhere to the photo policies of the Fair;

- * Participants may photograph FanFair activities for their own purposes, provided that the persons being photographed have given their consent. This is especially true for partners/spouses who are more easily identifiable.
- * Sound video & movie cameras are prohibited, with the exception of video cameras operated by FanFair staff who will be identifiable.
- * No person, other than a participant, employee, or agent of the Fair Administration may carry a camera or photograph activities or make sound recordings without the expressed permission of the Fair Director.
- * Media must obtain expressed written permission from the Fair Director to attend any function. In addition, media must obtain written releases from any participant photographed or interviewed. This also applies to any participant who is acting as an agent or reporter for any media or proprietary publications. The Fair Director must give permission to send any photos to publications.
- * The Fantasia Fair' Administration reserves the right to prohibit anyone from carrying a camera or making sound recordings of Fantasia Fair activities, but wishes to advise participants that it has no authority to control activity in public areas outside of the Fair, such as on the streets of Provincetown.

Participants will be asked to sign a Photo Video Release Form so that video recordings and photos taken by our staff may be used to present the Fair to Professional and Academic groups, Cross dressing clubs, and offered to participants who may want a nice permanent memory of the Fair. Those desiring not to be photographed will be given with A bright badge indicating "No Photographs Please!" Persons choosing to do this will be excluded from participating in public performances such as the Follies and Fashion Show.

Medical Forms

When registering at the Fair, you will be asked to fill out a simple medical form which you will seal in an envelope and return to the registration staff. It will be put in your file and opened only in case of a medical emergency where we would need to know how to contact your doctor or other designated person. The envelope will be destroyed, unopened after the Fair. You may request your envelope back when you depart on the last day of the Fair.

Sunday, October 19

Unitarian Universalist Meeting House Service -

A unique experience in a historical setting. The UU's are a "Welcoming Congregation" dedicated to making everyone welcome no matter what your faith or gender expression.

Many years ago the walls were painted with trompe l'oeil panels which have recently been renewed to their original glory.

Registration at the Pilgrim House beginning at 3 PM

Sunday-Friday 4-5PM - Special Open Forum - 2nd floor lounge, Pilgrim House

Louise Davy - TALK BACK

Each day, there will be an hour-long "Talk Back" in which new attendees as well as oldtimers will share experiences, strengths, hopes, and processing in a peer group setting. Discussions will vary according to the needs of the participants each day.

The goal is to support newcomers while also strengthening the ongoing experience of transgendered persons who have been to the Fair for years. Many "seasoned" fairgoers have not sat down in this kind of group in the past, so it may be a new experience for them as well. The seasoned "woman's" experiences are invaluable for the new attendee.

Conversely, the ability to talk and share feelings for the newcomer is essential. The last session of the week will process "coming down" from a full week at the Fair and we will discuss what to do when you leave, getting your ongoing network in place, and other issues the participants want to discuss.

Peer support is modeled on self-help groups, which means the discussions are in response to the daily needs of those present. This is not a therapy group but IS therapeutic for everyone who attends. There is no

"therapist" for the group, but there will be a facilitator to help the group get going each day.

The Forum is free.

Monday October 20

Dottie Laing - SIGNIFICANT OTHERS (SO'S) GET ACQUAINTED COFFEE

Meet Genetic Female Partners to get acquainted and to adjust week's events to meet the desires of the group. Lunch at the Boatshop.

COFFEE CALL AT THE BOATSLIP

Recommended for all first timers (Most everyone comes anyway to see old friends and enjoy the coffee and fresh pastry).

Weslee Avery, Fair Director and Staff - ORIENTATION - GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER & WHO DOES WHAT

Fan Fair staff and participants are from all races, sexes, ages, professions and come from all over the world. This get acquainted program and luncheon will break the ice and start friendships that will endure long after the Fair is over, long after the last participant has gone home and the winter winds sweep over beautiful Cape Cod.

Miqqi Alicia Gilbert, Ph.D. - BURN YOUR BRA!!!

Crossdressers are famous (or notorious) for overdoing aspects of femininity that many women would rather leave behind. As a group we probably wear heels, dresses, and skirts more than any random group of genetic women. We also make sure that we are using plenty of makeup, lingerie, and padding. Why are there no flat-chested cross dressers?

This discussion will focus on 1) why we are so attached to emulating so many aspects of female ideal that are disdained or opposed by some women; and 2) what happens to us if we dress without makeup, without padding, without anything uncomfortable?

Mariette Pathy Allen - MAKE YOUR SHOTS COUNT - Lunch at The Boatslip
Mariette will speak candidly about ways to improve the photos you take at the Fair. Too often your pictures are disappointing when you get back flawed pictures with too many backs, heads cut off or poor lighting. These cherished moments only come by once, you rarely get a second chance.

Weslee Avery - SPEAKER'S INTRODUCTIONS

Recommended for Veterans and Newbies alike. Meet most of the Faculty to hear about special programs. Sign up for paid programs.

Martha Rice, Ph.D., and Ari Kane, M.Ed. - DISCUSSION: ANDROGYNY

Come join an informal gathering in Ari's apartment at Hargood House to talk about androgyny, looking beyond male/female boundaries, and wondering about where we go from here.

Marilyn Volker - INTIMATE COMMUNICATION

Trickiest of all intimacies is often the emotional one. Can we talk-- both verbal and non-verbal. Marilyn Volker will offer opportunities for each participant to evaluate specific communication styles and focus on enhancing intimate (non-sexual AND sexual) styles.

Roger N. Millen, PhD. - THE ESSENCE OF T'AI CHI (Tues.-Fr. see sched.)

The T'ai Chi form consists of a set of graceful, relaxed, flowing movements that are easy to learn and do for people of all ages: strong, weak, healthy, or ill. Through regular practice of T'ai Chi, one can attain peace of mind and body by experiencing the interplay of Yin (feminine, accepting energy) and Yang (masculine, assertive energy) -- the balancing forces of the universe. T'ai Chi can be used as a moving meditation for centering, balancing, and grounding, as well as a path to one's true nature.

David Prok, M.A. -- ISSUES AND CONCERNS, PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS OF THE GENDER AND SEXUAL MINORITIES. Dinner at the UU Meeting House

Enjoy meeting, eating and discussing with local UU members at the Diversity Dinner cooked by Fan Fair members. (Volunteers accepted). The dinner will be followed by David Prok's presentation and a discussion session.

Tuesday - October 21

Sutton/Gilbert/Green - DIVERSITY FORUM

For many years, FanFair has had a sizeable contingent of Spanish-speaking attendees. We would like to hear from them. What are their issues, concerns, pleasures? What is it like to be a crossdresser in a machismo culture? How can we understand? How can we help?

Spanish speaking persons are especially encouraged to attend and share their perspectives with other attendees.

Martha Rice - ACTING NATURALLY

Performance coaching for more spontaneous and natural acting on stage. Learn how to "warm up" your inner actress to get her fully present on your stage.

David Prok, M.A. and Ari Kane, M.Ed. - CRITICAL ISSUES AND CONCERNS FOR THE TRANSGENDER COMMUNITY - lunch at The Landmark

After a brief "framing" by the presenters, the floor will be opened for attendees to discuss their specific concerns about the Fair, about being transgendered, and about life in general. Feedback will be obtained from other attendees and the presenters.

Marilyn Volker - INTIMACIES AU FEMME! - Lunch at Iguana

Come and join our resident sexologist, Marilyn Volker in examining the eight types of intimacies (only ONE is sex) and celebrate your intimate profile-- or set goals in any or each of the eight! Oh, yes, sex will be discussed also-- with emphasis on the four stages of sex responses-- affirming that unique responses are experienced by each participant (with/out partner(s)).

Dallas Denny, M.A. - BACK TO THE FUTURE: GENDER IN THE 21ST CENTURY, PART 2 (part 1 was presented last year)

Our intrepid futurian will continue her speculations about where changing notions of gender might take us in the next millennium. Will men routinely wear skirts and earrings? Will there be a female president? Might there be a "gender backlash" which will take us back to the gender dark ages? Will the gender community become obsolete as the greater population takes to crossdressing and gender bending? Come take a trip on the gender time machine.

Niela Miller - QUALITY COMMUNICATION FOR PAIRS

Through a series of exercises, you will have the chance to try some communication techniques which may not be a part of your usual way of interacting, assess their value, and take them home to practice.

Pairs does not mean you have to participate as a couple, it refers to one on one communications.

Wednesday, October 22

Niela Miller - THE FEMININE TOOLKIT

How do women behave with each other in groups to create such immediate bonding and sisterhood? Come find out. You will be coached in the skills you need to feel at home in any group of women.

Dallas Denny - WHEN CROSSDRESSING IS NOT ENOUGH WHERE OUR TRANSGENDER CAREER PATHS CAN AND DO TAKE US

Crossdressers, heterosexual and otherwise, typically follow "career paths" which can lead them further from traditional definitions of masculinity and femininity. For instance, many people who initially identify as crossdressers can come to desire body modifications like electrolysis and hormone therapy that are more typically associated with transsexualism.

What are these career paths, how do they develop, and how can one make wise decisions about emerging gender identity and sexuality issues?

Marilyn Volker - PARTNER PRIORITIES -WHAT ABOUT MY NEEDS?

FanFair offers a wide range of focus, experience insights and opportunities for the cross/trans gendered person and partner(s). How do YOU - the partner - prioritize your needs in balance with his/hers? An interactive and practical workshop for partners to question, brainstorm, prioritize, and problem-solve possibilities for reality "re-entry".

Chic & Cheap - FILM AND DISCUSSION ON PROPER MAKEUP TECHNIQUES BY COVERMARK

The latest techniques on beardcover and beautiful makeup.

Ari Kane - HISTORY OF OUTREACH INSTITUTE - Lunch at Napi's

The Outreach Institute of Gender Studies: its history, its present focus and its future, trends in transgender education for the 21st Century.

Roger N. Millen - HYPNOSIS: FACTS VS. FABLES - Lunch at The Boatslip

What exactly is hypnosis? What is a hypnotic experience? What are the potential benefits? Can anyone make you do things under hypnosis that you wouldn't normally do? Roger has been a practitioner and teacher of Ericksonian Hypnosis for many years and will share with us his thoughts and experiences on using altered states of attention, awareness, and consciousness as a path for personal exploration and growth.

Roger N. Millen - POSITIVE CHANGE WITH HYPNOSIS

In a safe, supportive, group environment, come and experience self-exploration using Hypnosis. Within each of us lie all the resources that we need for personal growth and movement on our developmental path as individuals. Often these resources lie hidden in the subconscious, waiting to be uncovered. During the hypnotic experience, barriers soften, doors open, and insight is often gained with respect to "next steps." This is an experiential workshop that offers a taste of hypnosis for the curious.

Diane Sutton - DISCUSSION SESSION ON COMING OUT

Who are the different people we want to come out to, and why? Sharing what are some things that have worked and what are some things that haven't?

Thursday, October 22

Merrill Shea - SPEECH CLASSES

Merrill Shea has twenty-five years experience as a teacher of singing and speech and as a voice therapist. Formerly staff voice therapist at the Mass. Eye & Ear Infirmary, he currently teaches privately and directs the Institute for Public Speaking at The Boston Conservatory. About ten years ago, he started working with members of the gender community. Similar to his voice therapy patients, Mr. Shea uses singing-related techniques to help his gender community clients achieve a more feminine voice.

LARGE GROUP SPEECH THERAPY SESSIONS (limited to 10)

The Introductory Large Group Speech Therapy session will be repeated twice in order to make it possible for all those who may not be able to come to the first introductory session to become acquainted with basic techniques of relaxed articulation and breathing. The workshop will focus on relating singing to speaking, as well as simple articulation exercises, to produce a more feminine sounding voice. It is a hands-on, participatory workshop and is a prerequisite for anyone planning to follow up with an individual or small group work session.

INDIVIDUAL AND SMALL GROUP VOICE LESSONS (1-3 PERSONS)

Work sessions will build on the large group theory presentations.

Diane Sutton - DISCUSSION: MID-LIFE TRANSITION

The mid-life years can be a confusing and overwhelming time for a man. He is probably having thoughts and feelings he has never had before regarding career, children, spouse, parents, and himself. This discussion group will share some of the male mid-life issues and then explore the insights that crossdressing provides.

Mariette Pathy Allen - THE CHANGING FACE OF THE TRANSGENDER COMMUNITY - A slide show by the author of "Transformations".

Mariette will present a documentary of the history of the TG Community over the last 20 years incorporating the evolution of Fantasia Fair and other Conventions. The change in attitudes towards the body, "passing", political activism, transgendering, as well as the emergence of the F to M and Intersex will bring you up to date.

Niela Miller - TRANSGENDER VETERANS: FREE SELF TO FREE SOCIETY - Lunch at The Landmark

An opportunity for veterans of gender exploration to take a look at where they have come, where they are now, and where they are going. What are their growing edges? What kinds of gender issues are of concern to them now? What is their connection to the larger community? What is in their minds and hearts?

Miqqi Alicia Gilbert - THE FEMINIST CROSSDRESSER - Lunch at The Gov. Bradford Inn

The feminist take on transgenderism in all its various guises varies widely from acceptance and understanding, through tolerance and puzzlement, to anger and horror. What's more, this is also true for many TG's attitudes towards feminism. We will begin by reviewing several feminist's views of transgenderism, both favorable and not. By trying to understand what is considered positive and what is considered negative we may obtain a deeper understanding of ourselves and how we are seen.

The other side of the coin is what it means for a crossdresser to be a feminist. In this part we will consider those aspects of our own lives as crossdressers that teach us something and give us insight into the role women must play. As crossdressers we often have insights into the world of the feminine that is unique, but we do not always reflect on it or take advantage of it. By thinking about such profound things as personal safety, and sexual harassment, or such mundane things as the discomfort of high heels, or the crowding of washrooms, we can better understand the realities that genetic women face regularly. This in turn, can sensitize us to the calls of feminists for everything from pay equity to toilet equity.

Roger Millen - INTEGRATING THE MASCULINE AND FEMININE ASPECTS OF SELF

"On the one hand I want to ____, but on the other hand I want to ____". "One part of me needs ____, but another part needs ____". "Sometimes I feel ____, while other times I feel ____". Sound familiar? You bet it does! We all have, and experience opposing parts, inner conflict, or polarities at times.

The most pronounced example can be the tension between anima & animus, yin & yang, female & male, feminine & masculine, or anything else you would like to call them. This is an experiential workshop that effects a meaningful integration of these two aspects of the self. We will learn a synergistic process that can produce a new-found sense of internal balance and harmony.

Friday, October 24

Douglas Ousterhout, MD - FEMINIZATION OF THE FACE, MALE TO FEMALE TS

The presentation will be directed at describing the differences between male and female facial skeleton. It will demonstrate how the evaluations are made and then present many examples of specific changes that have been made and the overall result from feminizing procedures. These surgical procedures have become extremely valuable to the male to female transsexual. The face has been feminized to a markedly improved condition with excellent results, facilitating passing.

OUSTERHOUT CLINIC

Dr. Ousterhout will meet with anyone desiring a consultation on possible facial surgery. The clinic will be open at the Fairbanks Carriage House Friday afternoon and all day Saturday. Details will be given at the talk on Friday Morning.

Niela Miller - DREAMS AND FANTASIES

Let your subconscious and your imagination help you understand more than your rational mind alone can tell you about who you are, where you are going and how to get there. You will learn how to work with dream imagery and generate data from your image-making mind for illumination.

Sutton/Gilbert - THE EFFECTS OF CULTURE, RELIGION AND ETHNICITY ON TRANSGENDERISM - Lunch at the Gov. Bradford Inn

FanFair is a celebration, a "Splendor of Gender" which includes straight crossdressers, gay crossdressers, bisexual crossdressers, androgynes, transgenderists, pre-op transsexuals (both MTF and FTM), post-op transsexuals (both MTF and FTM), genuine women, gender-questioning people, and helping professionals. Its first weekend coincides with Women's Week, at which more than 8000 women, many of whom are serious genderbenders, are in town.

Fanfair is diverse in other ways than gender, also, having people of all races and many cultures from around the world. How can we all be sensitive to each others' needs? Attend, share and learn!

Diane Ellaborn, LICSW - CD COUPLE ISSUES AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION - Lunch at Napi's

A: Discussion

Goal: Many couples do not know how to talk about issues without the issues escalating out of control or avoid issues in their attempts to keep the peace. This talk will describe different styles of conflict resolution and help participants identify the style they most often use and to develop a variety of conflict resolution skills. A model of "fighting fair" will also be described. Examples of how to apply these skills to issues that arise in couples where one partner is transgendered will be explored.

Diane Ellaborn, LICSW & Arie van der Ven, Dr. of Clinical Psychology - CD

B: Afternoon Workshop

Goal: Participants will separate into two groups. Each group will be facilitated by a workshop leader. One group will be focused on transgendered participants. The other group will be for partners. The facilitators will help participants further talk about:

- * areas of conflict in CD couples
- * what's worked in the past and what has not
- * variety of ways to resolve conflict
- * new models of conflict resolution skills to these issues.

C: Group Feedback

Goal: Feedback will be shared between larger groups describing how the transgendered partner sees conflict anyhow partner sees conflict, what are the issues, and new ideas for resolution will be discussed.

Roger N. Millen - GETTING OUT OF YOUR OWN WAY: "BYE-BYE" TO LIMITING BELIEFS

Very often, limiting beliefs about ourselves, others, or the world keep us from moving toward that which we most truly desire. Unfounded fears and fantasized negative consequences of our actions often paralyze us and limit our ability to cope with the events and circumstances of ordinary day-to-day living. Participants in this workshop will learn to:

- * change fear, apprehension, or anxiety into opportunities for growth
- * reframe obstacles and disappointment into opportunities for learning
- * transform limiting beliefs into appropriate supportive beliefs

Saturday, October 25

Niela Miller - THE UNDISGUISED HUMAN

Leave your fem clothes at home for this one, but bring your feeling heart and practice speaking from it in a safe and supportive group, without props. This is a powerful and freeing experience which helps you realize that your

Alison Laing - THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS... OR LIVING A BALANCED LIFE TO THE FULLEST. Lunch at The Boatslip

For many of us, coming out, stirs thoughts of going full time. And, for many, that is perhaps the best course. But I believe that there are many more, who, if they work it right, can lead very satisfying lives and have an even more successful expression of their Transgenderism by devising a bigendered approach.

In the case of my own life, and that is all I can speak from with any sense of certainty, it has allowed me to maintain my family, most of my friends, certain additional income and still have the time of my life. For one thing it has never been boring, and for another, I have never taken it for granted.

This presentation will include some of the humorous as well as the more serious aspects of leading a dual life, the problems of social acceptance and legal issues, trade offs and compromises. It will also cover how I have rationalized the issues and have come to feel that I have ended up with the "best of both worlds."

Jean Marie Jones - SENSITIVITY TRAINING AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

Catch the new spirit and excitement about educating "them", so "they" will have a better understanding of who "we" really are by tearing down the myths and replacing them with facts. Prof. Jones has been educating law enforcement, corrections, and emergency medical service personnel for 30+ years by having "them" look inward to examine the mind and heart, then look outward and interpret what they see.

Your Hosts, the Innkeepers and Apartment Managers

Because Provincetown is the largest gay resort area in the U.S., it's safe to say that your hosts are likely to be gay. In most cases, they have invested their life savings in your inn to make it a personal showpiece and competitive in a community where quality is an important criterion. The Fair is post-seasonal for Provincetown and, in general, the innkeepers have "had it" with the in-season chaos. But your hosts have come to know us and enjoy us, and they look forward to our annual "migration."

Your House Hostess

One of your FanFair sisters will be a volunteer for your inn, serving as a liaison between you and the innkeeper, as well as the Fair staff. If you have questions or problems, she's the one to ask first. In addition, your housemother will have at least two late evening house parties—pajama parties, if you wish—so that you can let down your hair and really get to know your housemates... plus any visitors from other inns who might drop by. She will also distribute a daily newsletter, The FanFair Gazette.

Your Responsibilities as a Guest

- Treat the inn as your home, because it is your host's home. Although many hosts will help you move in, they are not bellhops. Share in the effort. Most Inns have houseboys.
- If there is a problem with your accommodations, tell your house hostess who will tell the innkeeper. Or she will put you in touch with the right Fair personnel, if necessary. We'll do all we can within our power to correct any situation.
- Please use paper towels, tissues or the washcloth we supply to remove makeup. Cosmetics and beard cover are particularly difficult to wash out of towels.
- Take the time to get to know the staff at your inn; they're great people, they know P'town, and they can help make your stay even more enjoyable.
- Remember to tip the house staff on your departure. A tip in the range of $2.50 to $3.50 per day is considered appropriate.

The FanFair awards are presented to those who have contributed to the success of the Fair. Four of these awards are chosen by secret ballot from all the participants.

Ms. Best Dressed:

Goes to the participant who showed good taste in style and manner of dress and did it in an authentic and consistent feminine manner.

Ms. Cinderella:

Ms. Femininity:

Goes to the participant who best exemplifies the feminine image in comportment and deportment and most successfully expressed herself as "sister" throughout the week.

Ms. Helpful:

Goes to the participant who really came out to serve her sisters and the Fair as a nurturing and helpful individual.

Ms. Fantasia Fair:

Afterthoughts from Weslee Avery, Fair Director

As I reflect on my years with Fantasia Fair, I see images that seem to make my world complete. The most prevailing image is that of people helping people. I see the dedication of many FanFair participants and volunteers, who give whatever they can through their time, talent, and donations to ensure that the Fair not only remains alive, but strives to improve and reach more individuals each year.

I see Provincetown and the welcoming innkeepers, restaurant managers, churchmembers, and citizens who support us, cheer us, and encourage us to live, as they do, without fear of rejection, prosecution, or judgment. "The FanFair Experience" is not realized just through the participants. It is also realized through the many lives of those around us during our stay in their quaint little town.

I see leaders; pioneers who's views have shaped the world's view of us for the better. They've pushed, pulled, and educated to elevate us to a new level; a respected level of individuals who's needs and wants are now being addressed in legislation around the world. These leaders assist FanFair to ensure that your needs and wants are addressed here as well.

And Finally, I see you. The TG community; the FanFair community. The reason we converge on this tiny Cape Cod town to educate, renew, and revitalize ourselves to keep up the momentum and courage to go forward and live life to the fullest.

So many FanFair participants have arrived fearful and secretive, and leave as confident, open individuals with a sense of hope and pride. Their eagerness to take on the world and do their part to change views and attitudes is a direct result of their experience at Fantasia Fair.

As I see it, we all benefit from Fantasia Fair. Not just us as individuals; but our families, friends, co-workers, the town of Provincetown, and the entire world.

When you return home from Provincetown and reflect on your experience, I hope that you will see it as I do. It is the most wonderful and fulfilling experience in the world.

What if...?

What if an immature, insecure person confronts you or teases you in an attempt to provoke a reaction? Do not be alarmed and do not lose your temper. Keep calm, ignore them, and go about your business. Do not verbally or Physically Strike Back At A Heckler, Unless You Have Be Assaulted Yourself. Notify the police immediately of any harassing situation — they will protect you. Provide a description of the heckler.

What if tourists point and stare at you, or at a group you're with? Smile back at them! You have as much right to be there as they do, so don't let their insecurity steal even a second of joy from you.
