Abstract

This collection contains a variety of materials on TAMU alumni and Brazos Valley individuals associated with LGBTQ issues, or TAMU alumni and Brazos Valley individuals who self-identify as LGBTQ. The primary artifacts included are artwork, clippings, correspondences, personal papers, official records, audio visual material, and photographs. Notable biography files include Paul Broussard (former Aggie and victim of a hate crime in Houston in 1991), Ruthie Foster (singer/songwriter who grew up in the Brazos Valley), and Lowell Kane (director of the TAMU GLBT Resource Center in its early years).

Scope and Contents of the Materials

This collection covers predominantly the 1990s to the early 2000s. Most publications included are from the Brazos Valley area or Texas, but some are national.
