What

The 7th annual

Coming Together - Working Together Convention Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

A convention for all members of the Crossdressing/Transsexual Community, wives & partners of CD/TS persons, medical and mental health professionals, educators and students: anyone who is interested in learning more about the CD/TS phenomena.

When, Where

3/14/93 - 3/21/93, 1993

The Philadelphia Hilton & Towers; contemporary look and style nestled in the center of Philadelphia. In addition to spacious conference and banquet facilities The former Hershey Hotel boasts fine dining and entertainment, as well as an impressive health facility. A mere walking distance from the entertainment and historic districts of this fine city makes this a perfect home for our yearly gathering.

Why

To become an important participant in our future. Your attendance is vital to our collective success.

To seize the opportunity to meet, learn from, and share insights with the leaders and members of Our Community from around the world.

To learn, grow, and be yourself in an atmosphere of pride, dignity, and joy.

To have fun !
