ON THE SCENE NITE & FANTASY FASHION FETISH NITE at the QUEEN MARY SHOW LOUNGE

Last year, I had the pleasure to meet the delightful and charming "Karen Dior." It was at the cast party for "Wigstock: The Movie" at "Tommy Tangs." We did not have a lot of time to chat, but we did exchange phone numbers. Not long after, she was my special guest at one of the fetish parties live on stage in the "Show Lounge", and what a treat it was. I am very pleased that this month's star of TV screen and stage, along with being a producer and director, "Miss Karen Dior." I want to thank everyone who attends the events I present at the "Queen Mary Show Lounge." I recall that years before I got into the scene, I was driving a truck to Woodland Hills. The DJ on the radio was kabitzing with a listener who had called in. Somehow the subject of the "Queen Mary" in Long Beach came up. Yes, the boat is wonderful and has a long history and bla, bla, bla. My ears perked up when the conversation switched to another "Queen Mary" and this one was in the San Fernando Valley. It was a club for female impersonators and from that day on I never forgot the conversation and the name of that club in the Valley. In that moment, I realized that I was not alone and there was a place in California where men dressed as women. Remember that I was new to Southern California and into my second marriage.

Recently, I got a letter from a fellow who told me about how he got up the courage to buy a TV Epic. I can relate to that fear that walking into an adult bookstore encompasses. These evenings one of my regular stops before I hit the "Back Bar" is to drop by the adult bookstore not far from the club. I usually check to see what issue of TV Epic is available. The gentleman who told me about his adventure went on to tell me that he was shocked and in TV heaven. He never realized there was a scene such as ours, and that there is a TV community. TV Epic opened up a whole new world to him with the articles and stories. The photo spreads of the parties were his favorites, and could he attend a party? I can not tell you all this person wrote, but I will say that it was a pleasure to read the letter.

Over the years I have written about dealing with coming out and the issues single men who crossdress face. Before the wig and heels comes months and years of soul searching for many. A never ending succession of victories and defeats in the trial and error process that we all interface with. It gives me great pleasure to hear that this publication is the key to the closet door for more than a few. We have a boat with huge sails my friends, and what a great adventure and journey we are on. The sails get a make-over once a month, and I and others in the community get some space. We designed the craft so each individual sail carries it's own special marker and message. One sail may be a little larger than the others but, they all need each other for the ship to run smooth. Yes, occasionally a sail is brought down to be replaced by another. This is fine and works in the grand scheme of things. This is looked upon as a continuous trial run, and trying new markers and ideas is a positive. Each person who has a marker and sail time has been recruited for their previous experience and reputation in the transgendered community. Occasionally an exploration party is sent out and usually come back from some far off island with stories, drawings, and photos of some intertribal affair. It all comes back to the organization called "Pathway

with Marlayna Lacie

Communications" that gives the boat what it needs the most to run. That is funding, and there would be no sails, parties, and camera time for many with out them.

This year in June there will be a party to celebrate the seven year anniversary of the "On The Scene Nite" party. A special event for many, but most of all the transgendered community. I have come a long way since that truck ride years ago. Farther than my wildest dreams could ever be. I truly believe that one's dreams can come true. If you have been dreaming and finding yourself wanting to explore your interest in crossdressing. It is never too late and there are a hell of a lot of others just like you. If you do not feel comfortable coming to an event or party "en-femme." You don't have to, just come in "drab" (dressed in boy). Check out the atmosphere and then decided if you want to "go for it!" Once again, if you do then I suggest you see a professional transformation/beauty expert such as Val Driscoll at Hair to Wear Wigs, (310) 320-5015 or Jim Bridges (818) 506-5619.

Recently, I heard through the grapevine that a couple of "ladies" who purchase TV Epic on a regular basis said this, "Is Marlayna going Hollywood and forgetting us?" The answer is yes and no, and I will explain this right now. When I was fourteen years old, I lived in Huntington Beach. I was a baby boomer and the television and the movies played a big part in my life. I was born back East in a town called Medford just north of Boston. When I was seven years old my uncle brought me to the local theater to see movies like "The House on Haunted Hill" and "The Tarantula." The television gave me "Dick Clark" and the "Shirells" and Motown, and oh didn't I love "Dionne Warwick." I grew up watching the "Mickey Mouse Club" and "Leave It To Beaver" and on rainy afternoons, I was mesmerized by "Shirley Temple" movies and those old song and dance flicks. I was especially fond of the Busbee Birkley Productions. "Carmen Miranda" and the fruit hat. I also watched every movie "Mickey Rooney" did with a group of talented dancers and singers. Yes, I always liked it when he got the gang together to do a musical for some far fetched reason. It was all in fun and Mickey seemed to be having a blast. I had great fun putting together my "Wigfest West 95" event. I can say that every person in the cast is a good friend.

Before I moved from Huntington Beach back to Massachusetts, I visited the movie mill in Culver City. Most production companies are located there. Hollywood just has the reputation. I saw the house where "Leave it to Beaver" was filmed. It was a facade and the whole place was a fantasy factory. When I left California, I kept the memory of that big white sign up in the hills in my heart. Hollywood is the glamour capital of the world and has always been a place where I knew I wanted to be. Have I gone Hollywood you ask? I have never been focused on any other place other than writing to you. Writing for the gender community is my true passion, and is where I started my career.

Tonight is the fabulous awards event for the adult entertainment industry. I could have gone as I was on the guest list and "Karen Dior" called to offer me a seat as a friend canceled. I am recovering from the flu and tomorrow night I have my monthly "T" Party at Tommy Tangs. The event at Tommy's is very special to me as it is on Melrose Ave. I have had many of my friends attend, and friends, I am thrilled about this party. I have gone to tinsletown and my dinner party is open to all in the community so you can attend.

The bottom line in my career is writing to you and my many friends around the world. Yes, my scene has changed and to say that I am the same person I was three or four years ago is ridiculous. One who has read my column over the years have seen me go more public and come out big time. You have not seen me on talk shows that trash us. You have not seen me selling a line of lip gloss and panty hose. I put on and promote events and parties that are for men who crossdress. Every stage show that I produce include members of the local community. I continue to focus my time and energy in my writing for and about the transgendered community. I see myself as more than a writer and find great joy producing stage shows.

This year I will do my second event in the series and this one is titled "Wigfest West 96." I put in a call to Joey Arias and if possible, I will have the spirit of "Billie Holiday" on stage at the "Queen Mary Show Lounge." I am working on an event that will be at the infamous fantasy club called "The Chateau." This will most likely be titled "Marlayna's B & D TV Party." There will be a live stage show and many of the ladies in the local community will be featured. I am in the process of recruiting sexy ladies who want to model. I love the catwalk and I had great fun producing events that featured fashion shows. So, I am taking a shot at putting together a wild haute couture fetish fashion show to go. Marlayna presents "Rags on Drags" a wild and whacky gender bending fetish fashion dragavanza. Featuring the latest in kinky attire from the world renown "Mistress Antionette" and her Versatile Fashions Boutique. I have just started this project and feel confident that I can get my goals accomplished. I also am happy that I have included many of my friends in the local community.

I go to Hollywood two or three evenings a month. I go with friends to events that are for the community or I go as a reporter to represent TV Epic. When I first heard this comment about me and tinsletown, it gave me pause as they say. Food for thought and I did take a few weeks to come to terms with all of this. Twice a month I take a ride up the Hollywood 101 to the "Queen Mary Show Lounge." Many times when I see the sign that says Hollywood exits, I have two thoughts. I recall the memory of my dear friend "Frank Marsh." You see, I will never be able to shake my commitment and promise to him. The one to continue his vision of making this publication the best it could be. I know in my heart that Frank would be pleased and the bottom line is that I feel good about all of it. I go to Hollywood and your invited, and when you meet up with me you will find many ladies from the local community who are friends of mine. In the audience, at the dinner table, dance floor or on stage.

One "Christine Hotchberg" and I have had more than a few conversations discussing the "politics" of presenting a positive feminine image. I feel that by not putting a one hundred percent effort into how one presents oneself is not the way to go. If you look in the mirror and say to yourself, "Oh well, this is the best I can do." You are wrong, because there is always room for improvement and trying new looks and cosmetics are fun.

Here is something to think about. If you have a cousin from the Mid-West and he has never met a crossdresser, he's ripe for gender education. If he first meets superstar "Frank Marino" from Las Vegas at "An Evening at La Cage." He will think they are all show business types and very glamorous. Should he run into let's say the notorious beer for free hounds, known as "The Bud Light Gals." Show business again and camp is what drag must be all about. Should your cousin meet a transsexual, he will most likely be very confused and really need some gender education. Then he hears through the family grapevine that his cousin who lives in Tarzana dresses like a woman. You get the point, and the impression you make or I make translates to how we are all perceived.

I am looking forward to seeing "Miss Christine" on Saturday night the 3rd at "The Burbank Holiday Inn." The one and only Christine has gone on and is putting on her first crossdressing social event. "Within The Hearts Of Gender" is a full evening of fabulous entertainment. Great dinner and a talent contest. Dinner is thirty dollars, twenty dollars to enter talent contest, and rooms are seventy three dollars. This event is a benefit for numerous Aids hospices located in Southern California. Write to Christine for complete details at 5259 Corteen Place Suite 103, North Hollywood, Ca 91607. Also featured will be a beauty pageant and I am sure if you call the "Queen Mary" Richard the bartender will help you out. Christine deserves a big thank you for her dedication and numerous contributions to the gender community.

O.K. ladies get out your finest leather boots and haute couture "fetish" outfit. Then eat lightly during the day of the first Tuesday of the month. Call in reservations for dinner at "Tommy Tangs" (see full page ad in this publication). Because Marlayna's "T" Party is going to be a night to dress to really impress.

I will have free copies and TV Epic along with some kinky fetish videos from "Versatile Fashions." I also plan to hit my private collection and hand out some top name European magazines. You can now dine in divine drag and then find some of that much talked about kinky verlinky. Meet the Masters, Mistresses, and dining Divas and yours truly the first Tuesday at Tommy's.

My slinky kinky verlinky self got all dolled up on a Monday night and trekked on up to Ventura Blvd in Studio City. Oh a party at the "QM" your saying to yourself. Not! Thanks to promoters John Dunn and Seth Williams the Valley now has a night to dress up in those fetish fashions. Every Monday night the boys do a make-over on the new and exciting "Aftershock Nightclub" located at 11345 Ventura Blvd. For dinner reservations and nightclub info call (818) 828-2257. Crossdressers are attending and I had a great time. I chatted with John and Seth, and they both have charisma and charm. They also have a hit with their new enterprise. Southern California always has room for a place to go where you can get decked out in your fetish finest. This is the place and with valet parking, espresso, and cappuccino bar, along with high tech everything is a treat. I ran into LA's notorious party whore "Bobbi Trendy", and we had a chat in the ladies room. Fancy digs is all I can say, because they have an attendant there. The counters are loaded with hair brushes and combs along with hair spray, and many of these touch-up items us ladies might be in need of. The dance floor is a non-stop motion of leather and lace madness. Great sound system, but not so loud that you can not think. Ten High Heels and a dozen pair of those custom thigh high lace up jobs from Italy to this event. I plan on attending many of these parties this year. You might even find "Mistress Marlayna" playing with one of those cute slave girls that attend. The ones that need that "oh so special attention."

Recently, quite a few out of town ladies have been attending the parties I present. Many of them are very complimentary and thank me for my contributions to the community. At this point these kind words are the fruit from the years of work and writing. I will tell you that my biggest pleasure in all of this is the new friends I meet and hear from. When a kind word is passed my way the roses are a falling and I feel good in a way that no money can buy. Respect is how I process these kind words.

What about you and your commitment to the gender community? Have you thought about it? We are all in this together and if we do not stick together and support each other, what good is it? Oh my, how us birds of a feather do cluck and flock to the same watering holes and party palaces. So, we just get all dolled up and then go home and forget about it all till next Saturday night. I don't think so, and remember that as my friend "Tasha LaBlush" said one night, "The transgendered community is the largest support group in the world." Don't you forget that and I will tell you right out it is one hundred percent right on. Ask my friend "Carla" in New Orleans or "Jean Taylor" in New York. "Paula Jaffier" in Paris, along with "Patricia Serrano" in Huntington Beach. All ladies who make up part of that global community. You belong to it to even if you have not embraced it.

For the first two years I had no idea what the quote "community" was all about. Yes, it took going to New York and Texas along with letters from around the world before it sank in. When I found my calling and I heard it wearing high heels. I also plan to find new and exciting ladies to be on the cover of this publication. They will be local ladies and ones who are involved in the entertainment industry. I thank the folks at Pathway for working with me and allowing me the freedom to choose these ladies.

Checking out a recent (Late Nov.) copy of the "Village Voice" and I spy a photo of snake-oil pitchman "Howard Stern" in drag. Not a good looking woman makes he, and this was done to promote his new book. The name of it, I do not know or care. For 1995 Howard is the recipient of my first award. Yes, I give Mr. Stern the "Low Life In Low heels" award. Say no more.

Moving on, and I have to as I have to get dolled for my OTSN party in twenty minutes. Hope your January was fun, and we will see you at the Queen or Tommy's soon. We can chat and talk about "talk radio" and television, and how it touches our tits everyday and night.

Love ya,
Marlayna

Dealing with Coming Out

by Marlayna Lacie

Over the last few years I have written at least twenty five articles in this series. It has been one of my favorite because I really want to help other men. Ones like me who are very aware of the politics of what we do and how everyday there is something to deal with. The kind words and complimentary letters are sweet dessert. I savor and find great satisfaction when a reader writes me a letter and lets it all hang out. Once in a great while I receive a letter or card from a lady thanking me for my support and I want to share this letter from Selena with you.

Dear Marlayna,

I just want to drop you a line to tell you how much reading your column in TV Epic has helped me cope with coming out.

I have been a crossdresser since I was a young child. My circumstances did not allow me to pursue this lifestyle completely until last year. I am now 38 years old and I am compelled to enjoy my life as a typical macho style man, as well as a sexy feminine woman. I do not mean macho in the football and beer dude thing but rather as a part of my community, I am a local Karate teacher specializing in working with children. I am respected in my community and truly enjoy what I do, I feel blessed to have an occupation that I enjoy.

I also feel blessed to have a feminine side to me also. I have been buying women's clothes and make-up, working on being the beautiful woman that I am. This lifestyle is so lonely!!!

My first time out as a woman was on Halloween at the "Halloween Ball" in San Francisco, this club is mostly gay but there was a large number of "drag queens" there. As you stated gays are not into cross-dressers. I did not meet anyone at the party that night, how disappointing! I do not think of myself as a drag queen, perhaps a dual personality but definitely a woman wanting to explore her self and her femme self as well as her sexuality. I have had sex with a few men in the past, but it just was not what I needed. I realize that I want to be made love to as a woman and I want to make love to another that feels as I do.

Reading your column feels as though you are speaking to me personally! What a breath of fresh air and insight you have! You have much wisdom and love to share with us girls. May you be blessed with happiness throughout your life!

I do not have any photos of my femme self yet but I did make a connection with another girl through TV Epic, we are going to meet soon and I will send you some shots when they are available.

I want to attend the Tuesday parties and the fantasy fetish nites in your area, I called Leya and she was very friendly and supportive, I am very much looking forward to meeting you and Leya and all the other girls in our community. I live in Marin County, just north of S.F., and I can't wait to come down to the L.A. area!

I wish you all the best, much love and hugs!

Selena

Needles to say, I am looking forward to meeting Selena when she does visit the club. A long time ago I decided that my theme for this column would be like I was writing to a good friend on the other side of the country. These letters are read by many and I have a message for everyone of you. You are not alone in the world in your wants and feelings. There is no need to go on living that quiet life of desperation. I lived it for many years, and my friend, maybe you are living it too.

The decision to look in the mirror and decided that it is time to go for it, is not an easy one. Usually dragging a hell of a lot of heavy baggage with it. On the other, hand one can stay in that self imposed exile of a prison referred to as the closet. No thanks, and I tell you that it is never to late to live your dream and fantasy. Why not, and isn't life too short and sweet to deprive yourself of all the best it can offer?

To Selena, thank you so much and I appreciate your kind words. Yes, we are all in this together and forever we shall find ourselves dealing with coming out.

CUTE WHITE TV Enjoys dressing, going out and enjoying herself. I am presently involved on the board of directors of the Transgendered Organizations and I travel extensively. W hat ever happened to drag disco diva "Boy George?" Well, it seems that he got over his habit for heroin and boy-boy relationships. Recently Boy was featured on the cover of the "Advocate" and gave a lengthy interview. He is now ending a world tour promoting his new collection of songs titled, "Cheapness and Beauty." He also released an autobiography called, "Take it Like a Man." This thirty four year old who is an admitted drama queen is on the comeback trail. He has come a long way since 1982 when "Culture Club" put out their debut hit album "Kissing to be Clever." We have Boy George coming to L.A. to play a few dates at the "House Of Blues." Unfortunately, if you do not know someone in the music industry close to the source, it is impossible to get tickets. Would have been nice to see Boy at the "Hollywood Bowl."

On stage at the Duplex 61 Christopher Street we have "Steppin Out Productions" presenting two plays. "Smash Year For Dressing Room Divas", which has run in L.A. What caught my eye was the new play by Eric Ross titled, "Transsexuals On The Run." The ad copy reads like this, "Hilarity, mayhem, and confused sexual identity all abound; when a small-time mobster and his sexy son go to an up-state school for pre-op transsexuals." Directed by William J. Ingersoll, and I do hope to see this one on a stage in Hollywood. I did predict a new wave of movies and stage productions featuring men "en-femme." Yes, the world does love a queen. One that is on stage performing and entertaining.

Having dinner with a wife or girlfriend in the next booth is a different story. But, things are getting better and the dining in drag craze has just started. I predict that this year the popularity of Oriental eateries featuring "drag" nights will be big news.

As a teenager, I read as much as possible and was into music off all types. One evening I was the first caller in to receive free tickets to a concert at the "Music Hall" in Boston. The group playing was called, "The Velvet Underground" featuring "Nico." Well, I am sure a few of you recognize the band and will instantly recall memories of world renown creator of art, "Andy Warhol." This man turned the world upside down with a can of soup, a banana, and a four picture set of screen goddess "Marilyn Monroe." The Factory was the loft in New York where all this took place. Drag queens were one of Andy's favorites, and his films were showcases for a number of "dragdivas." Candy Darling, Jackie Curtis is gone and the drag band "The New York Dolls", are all but forgotten. In every group there are the survivors who keep on breathing and carrying the torch. So, appropriate that the last Warhol superstar "Holly Woodlawn" is on stage belting out a torchy ballad to a packed house.

Before we entered the "Checca Club" I sat in my car and chatted a few minutes with my new friend. Alexis De Lavega who was one of the "ladies" who was part of the eclectic and eccentric group of party pals. She found her fame impersonating the one and only "Marlene Dietrich." "She is in "Lola Holly" dahling," says Alexis to me as we do that necessary touch up before leaving a car. "We used to run all around New York and oh what fun Jackie was." My mind swirls to those days of "Studio 54" and the wild scene that Andy held court over. Alexis talks of the past and what wonderful times those were, but we both are enjoying and savoring the moment. We never question the beginning of our friendship. I am under her wing and her spell, and it seems so very natural.

The ride from "Tommy Tangs" on Melrose Ave was exciting as the party fever had just got stronger and stronger. After a great dinner and the added treat of a full blown stage show, the night was all a Hollywood evening could be. This evening "Patrick Shooting Star" at Tommy's had put together a tribute to the "James Bond" movie culture. The "Bondage Revue" was spectacular with a non-stop female impersonator show that was entertaining and fun. The one and only gender was Mistress of Ceremonies, and Patrick provided DJ services. Miss Tina Cochco and all the ladies did a great job.

Alexis and I left after the first show as "Holly Woodlawn" had reserved a table for her long time friend. Yes, they were friends from the old days and we know how those friends shine. Alexis took a deep breath as we stopped outside the door of the club. "We are going to make an entrance dahling," she said to me. With the emphasis on the word entrance hitting me sharply. Yes, we did, and my what fun it was. Holly stopped in the middle of her song to say hello to Alexis. She then introduced Alexis to the crowd. Then both ladies started to chit chat. Holly then asked Alexis, "Should we get you a microphone?" Quickly adding, "O.K., then sit down with your lovely friend so I can do my show." I loved every minute of it and what fun it was to see a legend in her own time. After the show Holly came over and sat with us for quite a while. Alexis and her were left alone as all could tell, they wanted a few minutes to savor the moment. I was talking to a new lady friend and giving her directions to the Queen Mary and exchanging phone numbers. This evening I had a truly enjoyable time and the full moon lit up that big Hollywood sign. As Holly said in her book, "It is the glamour capital of the world."

Recently I have been hanging out with what I call the expatriot drag community from New York. The writer from Boston seems to fit right in, and I love the new friends I have made on the scene.

Tableau Vivant!

TABLEAU VIVANT

By-Miss Tasha LaBlush

"Iggy, did you clean the lipstick stains off the milk bottle, company's comin over? And Iggy, don't try to use your Wonderbra as a flotation device. Besides you dumb floozy you were on the stupid waterbed. Poor Cyril nearly strangled when the bra straps wrapped around his neck. Remember your party decorum and etiquette. Iggy we all have to make so many allowances for you.

Now, now Iggy don't pout you sissy bitch. Just look at that lower lip quiver all red and smooth and moist, just look at it twitch. Iggy, darling if that perfectly shaped lip could talk. Iggy you bad girl. You're going to get it bad Iggy, so bad we'll have to take you to PetsMart for shots Iggy Baby. Yeah and a little tag will be on your slave collar Iggy. You'll get on your knees and bark like a bitch dog in heat, Iggy. Careful now we don't have much time. Much, ooh the suction function...ooh...Bad. Mmmm...Iggy, we all know why we make so many allowances for you perfect and beautiful in every way dear gorgeous Iggy. You know how to make it last don't you Iggy? We all know you know how to make it last. To ache even Violet Venable's small surgery couldn't change that for you. Sweet, delectable delicious Iggy. Is that because you drink Gran Marnier thru a straw, straight from the bottle? Oh, Iggy, oh, oh don't stop, yes, yes do dirty things to me. I like it...I like itttt...DING-DONG...thru the afterglow...DING-DONG...oh, Iggy, it's the front door, fuck. Did Madonna bring her own mattress this time?"

Where are we? What happened? Where did we go? And it's not nice to run out of K-Y.

By the time you read this many good things are going to be said about the character of the Vegas call girl, Ginger, played by Sharon Stone. She's at least going to get a nomination. Reason you, dearest reader dahlink, might like her too is that she has definite "drag appeal". Sure, sure, yours truly was drinking and feeling glib and Mr. Bowling shirt asks who I'd like to be just for a little while..."Ginger, during her early hooker days from the movie Casino" I blurted out...for she was at the pinnacle of sex appeal and sluttness and loved every fucking second. A few of us ladies can identify with that.

And those clothes were to perish for, simply perish dahlink, and be transported to drag queen heaven. The first time you see her in the casino she's bending over the crap table, from Robert Deniro's perspective, "It's come mount my big ass, baby." And later on he does! She's wearing a bugle head dress and shiny white skin-tight vinyl boots. She wears fabulous real furs, Baby and more boots, sexy leather, even when she's giving head to Joe Pesci; she looks hot every time you see her.

If you're a queen, go see the movie just to see Sharon Stone. She's a tragic character later in her life and nobody would want to be in her high heels later. The sixties were her time of peak power, money-lust and charisma. What a glorious true light she was. She had her time. May we all. Here, here. The movie is way too graphically violent and cruel. If you can get past that, Baby, you'll dig the jewelry and clothes orgy of Ginger Baby.

Let me tell ya' about somethin' Baby. Better than anybody else you know what really gets you hot and sexy, Baby. Be it spike heels, nylons and garters, sissy feminine panties or oral sex. Whatever it is that gets you there...go there...and say the word...Baby...a few times. Say it slow with lots of bounce in your lower lip. Say it at the end of a sentence like, "You taste so good, Baby." Say it in a whisper when you're having your "fav" kind of sex. Say it to your hot, sexy lover, Baby. Just go ahead and try it but you've gotta be maxed-out and oozing sensuality. This sexy little word will turn you on even more. It will help you feel clearly. Trust me on this one. I bet Ginger could tell you all about it, Baby.

"Iggy Baby, what are we going to do with you? Everytime you try to drink from your little cream bowl on the floor you splash cream all over. I don't care if your hands are tied behind your back. You know Betty Page didn't always have it so good either, Baby. She had to wear those rubber girdles, leather hoods and be bound in some pretty tight spots. You're a mess Iggy! Just look at that cream dripping from your pretty little chin. So white and liquid coating your gorgeous cupid bow lips. So what are we doing in Rome, Iggy? Our guests have arrived. And here we are, Iggy. Just you and me. We're drifting...drifting...drifting in and out with Mrs. Stone. It's spring in Rome. We're waiting for the next drop of cream, Iggy, to fall from your mouth Baby, and silently paint the floor."

Love, Sin and Gin...Baby,
Miss Tasha-Baby LaBlush

GENDER expression

This years "Comming Together" convention was held in Atlanta, Georgia. There was some questions a month before the convention whether it was going to be held but thru a lot of last minute effort and hard work by a number of the members of the Community it was wonderful.

Wednesday was the beginning of the convention. It started off that morning with a convention staff meeting. Other areas that were covered that day, were an all day Boot Camp for public speaking and educational presentations and all meeting on the transgendered community.

At the noon luncheon the key note speaker was Martine Ruth Platt, author of "Apartheid of Sex."

The Wednesday evening banquet was held in honor of the Trinity Award Recipients. This award is given to people who have made that extra effort in helping the transgendered community grow. This years recipients were James Green, Dallas Denny, Laura Caldwell, Leslie Feinberg, Sharron Ann Stewert, and Linda Peacock. Each of the awards are given separately which gives a chance to tell a little about each of the recipients.

On Thursday some of the meetings that were held were gender right issues in the legislature: "A retreat for transgendered women," "Adversity for androgyny," "Out reach the academic classroom," "Future trends of trans genderism," and Social group to a support group. The luncheon was hosted by Winslow Street Board of Trustees who awarded this years guests and special presentation in memory of Ellen Summers. The book at the seminars started off with creating programs for mental health professionals, "How to interact with each other," "New facts of the transgender community" "Congress of transgendered" organizations annual meeting. That Evening IFGE hosted a transexual pizza party in their suite.

On Friday the Board of Directors met at 8 a.m. to discuss pressing business pertaining to the organization and it's future growth and how our future conventions will be handled in coming years. During the same time seminars were planned for the Community.

At the afternoon luncheon Marissa S. Lynn announced her retirement and Alisson Lang the new executive director was introduced.

That afternoon the congress of transgendered reps. met and discussed the community and where it is going in future years. Later Friday evening the American Educational Gender information services co-sponsored a one of Kate Bornstene plays at the local playhouse. Kate flew in to town to do this one show as a fund raiser for AEGIS and The local support group. I had attended one of Kate's performances when she was in LA about 6 months ago so I was really excited to see her again. I really enjoyed the performance and after it was over she signed autographs and took pictures, then went over to the hotel bar and talked and had a few drinks. I met Kate prior to seeing her play. When she was in LA she was giving a lecture at one of the local community colleges that one of my Psychologist, friend teaches.

The work Kate has been doing in reaching out and educating people around the country through her Theater performances and the book she has written that is named "Gender Outlaws." Kate did a book signing and was a guest speaker at the Saturday afternoon luncheon.

Saturday morning begun the final full day of seminars. For those who were tired of seminars, there were lots of things to do to: get ready for the evening banquet. Having a make-over done or buying accessories for the evening banquet, or you could go shopping for books or other information.

Saturday Night banquet is held to honor the recipient of the Virginia Prince Award, Yvonne Cook Riley. This award is given to a member of the community to honor them for exceptional work they have done in the community.

It is normally the final dress-up affair of the convention. Many of the cross-dressers come in elegant gowns and some of the female to male come dressed in tuxedos. It is an evening of elegant fashion. When the banquet was over we all went to the hotel bar and talked and had a few drinks. For a lot of people it is really hard to go back to the room and change so they hung out until the early hours but finally they headed for the room to pack and get some sleep.

Sunday Morning a lot of the participants were leaving early but a few stayed around for the Sunday morning brunch where they held the traditional football toss (or other wise known as changing the guard) for those who are going to be sponsoring the 1996 convention in Minneapolis Minnesota. Then about Noon everyone went on their way.

If you weren't interested in what was going on in the different seminars you could go out to some of the many sights seeing tours that were offered in the Atlanta area.

I was able to go to the Historical tour which told a lot about growth in the South and how people lived. On the tour you actually saw some replicas of some of the Southern homes including the slave quarters. We also went on the city tour and saw all the things that are going on and all the new building that is being built for the 1996 summer olympic games. Coke Cola is made and you can actually taste the different types of Coke Cola that are made all over the world. A number of people arrived in town early to go out and see some of the sights. I stayed over till Sunday evening and I went with a couple friends and went and visited the Martin Luther King Memorial. It was very interesting and we had a nice afternoon walking through the house he was born in and walking through the museum and memorial sight.

I have been to Atlanta before so I knew about all the clubs and the night life that was in and about Atlanta but this trip was a little different. The convention was held at one of the Sharron hotels and there were two other conventions going on at the same time. One of the conventions going on was a Southern Black Law Student's convention and they must have had two or three hundred people participating and it seemed like 60 to 70% of them were girls who liked to party. The first couple days we got some funny looks but then they started asking questions and wanted to know why we liked to dress up.

It's Fiesta time when our Mexican sweetheart Angela made her show stopping entrance with a Mariachi Band. Ole!!

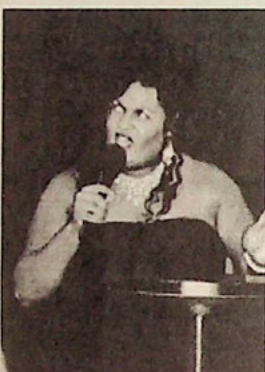

Wearing her transgendered buttons in Madonna fashion, Nancy Nangeroni crooned "Summertime"

Wearing a fashionable black number, Danatore into a velvety number from "Gypsy."

Even decked out in the Boston Red Sox colors, Delia put a new curve to the song "Impossible Dream."

That night there was only one true "Diva" (that's her name folks) as she did a memorable Billie Holiday medley.

(There is no 11) Elaine gives us a cultural treat with her Hyappy Talf from the South Pacific (anyone for a Mai Tai!)

Once again summer takes a bow, and I find myself on my annual whirlwind tour across the country to participate in two of the biggest "gender community" events that occur each year. It is a time to connect with old friends, forge new acquaintances, and the jewel of each event: the opportunity to introduce a newcomer to the world of beauty and transformation. It is a unique opportunity for all of the participants, a time when everything is bigger than life, a time when each person literally finds themselves on center stage. As an image consultant, these events allow me to create with a flamboyance drastically different from the everyday girl-about-town look. Some go for a smoky femme fatale look, others for rich sophistication, and others go for the downright burlesque. What follows is a narrated photo log of my fall travels and the lovely people who ornamented it with their own signature charm.

After treating my Mother to a tour of the beautiful concert of fall foliage that only New England can offer, I headed to Cape Cod in Massachusetts to the legendary town of Provincetown. The eclectic community is a haven for the full spectrum of lifestyle and cultural diversity. Provincetown is an accepting and safe haven for the seasoned crossdresser and the novice alike. The merchants embrace the opportunity to serve you and many clubs have female impersonator revues. It is one of the few places on earth where crossdressers are part of the landscape, therefore for many of my clients and friends it is nirvana.

It is also the home of "Fantasia Fair", a week long educational and recreational event now in it's 21st year. It is the longest running event of its kind and when it started it was the only show in town. Every year it's a success and this year was no exception as any of the 125 attendees will testify.

I know, I know, enough jibber-jabber and on to the photo spread. O.K., here goes... One of the highlights of "Fantasia Fair" is it's talent show. It entertains not only the participants, but locals and tourists as well and this year proved itself one of the most lavish.

I think that the glitzy Dana summed up the spirit of the evening with her piece "You Only Live Once."

The new IFGE royalty, Alison Laing was county-girl coy as she belted out, "I'm just a girl who can't say no", backed by Cindy and Betty.

Another international act was Cheryl from Canada.

Elliot Gould eat your heart out! No, its not Barbara, but an amazing simulation...Krystal.

It's Fiesta time when our Mexican sweetheart Angela made her show stopping entrance with a Mariachi Band. Ole!!

Even first timers get into the act, here's Canada's Jami giving it up to a responsive audience.

Dunn and Seth Williams do a big make-over on the "Aftershock Nightclub." For that one night the "kinky verlinky" is king and queen. The club is overrun with ladies, gents, and dragsters, dolled and decorated in the finest designer fetish rags available. I hit the club at 10:30p.m. and a line was waiting to get in. I had my car valet parked and got the purple rope treatment. "How come "she" gets in and we have to wait over half an hour?" one little bondage baby yelled to the doorman. Her wailing was ignored by him and I, as I entered the building. "Fabulous Dahling" is all I have to say, so do attend. Do the kinky verlinky and tell em Ms. Lacie sent you.

TIRED OF LOSING PICTURES? WE HAVE A SOLUTION!

introducing

personal Stationery

We know how frustrating it can be to lose a picture by sending it to an irresponsible person or couple who neglect to return it. That's why Pathway Communications is now offering a special service for our readers which will safeguard your pictures from loss, and it's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

Here's how it works:

You mail us your picture(s) along with the attached order form, making sure to select the stationery and paper style you want. Remember: send high quality photos that are in focus and have good contrast and tone. The better your picture, the better your stationery.

We scan your picture(s) into a computerized format and convert them to gray-scale pictures, just like those you see in this magazine. We then place the images onto stationery that you can write on and mail to others.

Then we mail back your original picture(s) and stationery, with a complete black and white reproduction of your picture(s) on each and every one, along with any requested text information (such as a greeting, P.O. Box and/or a phone number). That's all there is to it!

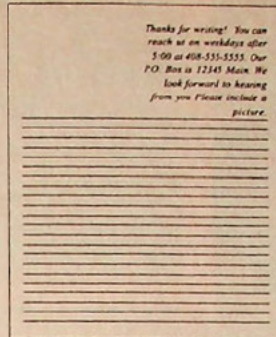

personal Stationery comes in a variety of layout styles. Please select the design that best suits your needs, and enter the code in the order form below. Include any pre-written text on a separate sheet of paper. Paper Colors available: Ivory, Teal, Red, Lt. Blue, Yellow, Pink, Green Special (+$3.50): Parchment, Marble

FANTASY Fashion Fetish NIGHT

Special guest "Mistress Sophia."

The party wagon still keeps on rolling and the fetish fun never stops at the Queen Mary Show Lounge on the fourth Saturday evening of every month. Masters, Mistresses, Slaves, and delightful divas of questionable gender abound.

This evening the world renowned Mistress Sophia was my special guest. She brought along a few slaves and joining her was the notorious "S & M Sharon." Whipping up the place and a few behinds to unravel the place. It was "Show Time" and the audience loved watching the spankings and thankings.

This month there is a party so you get out your best fetishy kinky verlinky and make a plan. We shall look forward to seeing you.

Cece will be on the cover soon!

It's those "sugar and spice" girls.

Miss Debbie doing her thing!

View From The Corner
by Miss Ann Thropist

Well, I am back again to report to you on the happenings at this month's party. Little Miss Debbie was working the door this evening and greeting guests. I was surprised when dominatrix "Mistress Jacqueline" walked in with two slaves in tow. Her and Marlayna had a few words and the whole group left for parts unknown.

Later they showed up with Jim Bridges and all hit the dance floor. I heard from Wendy that sometimes the place gets wild. This was my first glimpse at the action. I am a voyeur and love to watch people play, don't you? I have been watching the girl named Marla. I plan to introduce myself and want to ask her about the local scene. It was so crowded that I did not want to leave my seat. When I did, I came back and found it taken. Well, I found a corner in the Show Lounge and watched the girls perform. I tipped a few of the ladies and went home. This time I grabbed a free TV Epic as a friend wants me to send her one.

Miss Katie looking like Santa's helper.

Thanks to Marla for helping with the buffet.

INSTRUCTIONS:

To reach one of our adholders by using The Connector, first pick an ad that says "Connector" followed by their four digit code (example: CONNECTOR 1234). This is their voice box number. You may call our 900 number for The Connector in order to reach this person immediately. You may then leave a message for them and they can return your call upon hearing your message. When placing the call, you will be asked to enter your birthdate and then will be given a few options. To answer a specific ad, press 1, followed by the person's Connector number. After hearing their message to you, you may leave a message of your own. After that, it's up to you. You've made a Connection, now just have fun!
