IFGE CONVENTION 1988

The Second International Foundation for Gender Education Convention will be held February 23-29, 1988 at the Ramada O'Hare Hotel in Chicago. The convention will be an important educational event for the TV/TS community, the people who serve us, and those interested in and affected by us.

There will be a comprehensive program of workshops, seminars, moderated special topic raps and social activities for crossdressers, transsexuals, significant others, helping professionals and members of the general public who wish to learn.

The Convention registration fee is $175/person, or $275/M-F couple. Discounts of 10% for payment by January 1, 1988, and 5% for payment by February 10, 1988, are being offered. Registration includes all sessions, receptions, shows, and banquet. Speaker's luncheons at $10/luncheon. Most planned activities run from Wednesday evening (February 24) to Sunday morning (February 28).

Hotel and airline reservations must be made individually.

Nancy Ann is the ETVC representative for this Convention. If you are interested in going to Chicago with us for this interesting event, contact her at 415- [REDACTED] or at any ETVC social. Or, you may write directly to: Merissa Sherrill Lynn, c/o I.F.G.E., P.O. Box 19, Wayland, MA 01778. Start making your plans now for another exciting time with some truly fabulous people!

CONVENTION '89

Although it is well over a year away, we have already begun preparations for the 1989 IFGE Convention to be held in San Francisco. As the convention grows and with the added attraction of our fair city we expect a very large turnout. As the host club we have already begun to look at outside activities (tours, shopping, services) as well as looking for services to offer at the convention (manicures, wig styling, makeovers, boutiques). We will also be needing members to act as hostesses for the visitors. By the time the convention arrives in the spring of 1989 we will need the help of every member in one way or another. This is our opportunity to really show the rest of the country what a wonderful group and what a wonderful city we have.

We need your help now and in the coming months to make 1989 the best convention ever. Please contact any Executive Committee member, or call Gloria at 415- [REDACTED]

GLORIA'S GALLERY

People's lives change, they come and go from the group as their lives evolve. It was a surprise when Kim called me to resign as the co-chair of the Social committee. She has been doing a fantastic job of creating some of our best parties, since she stepped down from the coordinator position after several years. She has done a lot to make ETVC what it is today. But, at this point in time she has decided to channel her energy in other areas of her life and another group, Beyond War. I wish Kim the best of luck and I'm sure that we will see her from time to time at our socials.

In the same week, our newly elected Secretary, Lyn, gave me her letter of resignation. Lyn has taken a new full time job as well as a part time job that will take much of her time. She will continue to work on the newsletter as editor as well as the '89 Convention but, wouldn't have enough time to keep up with the membership lists.

So, we now have two openings on the Executive Committee. I hope that we will fill these soon, but it does point out how vulnerable our club is. As we grow and expand our horizons we need more help to give our members more programs and support.

If you are interested in helping on any committee as a leader or as a committee member, please contact any executive officer, or better yet attend one of the committee meetings and offer to help. It can be a fun and rewarding experience.

As we approach the holidays we are all a bit busier, but I hope that you will find time to attend one of our many special events during the holiday season. Please take a close look at the following page for details.

ETVC is YOUR club and the committee members are trying to make it the best there is, but you can make it even better by giving your ideas, your time and your energy.

Best wishes to you all throughout the holiday season.

ETVC/TRI-ESS DINNER FASHION SHOW November 14th

The real highlight of this special event will be the models that come from ETVC and TRI-ESS. Of course the Chez buffet is really good also. The $12.00 price includes a great meal made just the way you like it and watching, meeting, and talking with people from different parts of the country.

The Chez will be a sea of gorgeous ladies, sitting at the tables as well as modeling, the models will move throughout the dining areas describing their outfits to the individuals at each table.

You can sign up to model or make dinner reservations for the Dinner/Fashion Show at the ETVC Halloween Party on October 29th.

ETVC OUTREACH NIGHT WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 18

Just like last year, there will be all kinds of ETVC scrap books, newsletters from groups around the country and the world, as well as the great articles from the ETVC Library, plus the Book Library and photos albums. The introduction of the ETVC Video Library will also be a part of this educational evening.

The featured event of Outreach Night will be a panel discussion on all kinds of gender classifications. TG, TV, TS of course but much, much more. Tina Tanner, Lily Street and Joanna Caron will be participating on the panel. (See Page 4 for more details)

Members - $3 Nonmembers and Guests - $5

ETVC CHRISTMAS SING ALONG SATURDAY DECEMBER 19, 1987

O COME ALL YE FAITHFUL - come and join us for another of the now infamous ETVC CHRISTMAS SING ALONGS. This traditional party is known for its good time and all the marvelous (although interesting) singing. Our carolers will be kept on key again this year with the help of Mark Luko, our very talented pianist.

An appearance by several special guests and some great Christmas cookies make this a wonderful time for all. But, for the best gift of all this Christmas sing along is FREE - yes free as a gift to all ETVC members who've been good this year.

So Merry, Mary, Diane, or Whatever Your Name is - come to the Sing Along Saturday, December 19, starting at 8 P.M. at the Chez Mollet.

WHAT'RE YOU DOING NEW YEAR'S EVE?

Since the last Thursday of December is New Year's Eve, ETVC is having a New Year's Eve Party at the Chez Mollet!

You're all invited to come to the Chez Mollet and greet 1988 en femme. Lenny Mollet, owner of Chez Mollet, has put together a great dinner package if you are interested. For dinner reservations, please contact Ginny or Nancy Ann at 415 [redacted] by December 20th.

So come and celebrate with us. Wear your lovely outfits, put on pretty party hats and make some noise at midnight. It's sure to be a really fun night!

We will have the back section of the back room at the Chez Mollet from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. If you are in the city at all, be sure to stop by.

Reaching Out Reaching

Do your neighbors think you're a professional female impersonator because you leave the house dressed a lot? Did you tell your wife you were going to shave your body, so you could start pumping iron? And she's asking "Where's the beef?" Do the guys at work wonder why you have two pierced ears, not just one, longish nails, thin eyebrows, and make-up on your neck some Fridays? If you're confusing friends, relatives, co-workers, and yourself, come to the Outreach Social on November 18th at 8 pm. Talk and listen to professional female impersonators, TV's, drag queens, TS's and transgenderists. Find out who they are, who you are and learn what to tell your friend, relatives, and co-workers. Also, watch programs from our video library, and browse through the article and newsletter library. Come to the Outreach panel discussion on "Men Who Wear Women's Clothes and Why".

The Video Library now has tapes for sale. $10.00 per tape, we supply the tape or $5.00 per tape, if you supply a tape. Write me at the address below for the current list of video tapes. And if you have any tapes that you think the library could use, please let me know. So see me at the socials or drop me a line.

If you haven't sent in your Outreach Survey because the address wasn't on the survey sheet, you'll find the address at the bottom of this page. If you just forgot to send the survey in, this is a gentle reminder to do so.

Last newsletter I gave everyone a means whereby they can contribute to our outreach program without coming to an outreach meeting -- you can obtain some green "Introduction to ETVC" cards from me and use them as bookmarks in library books on transvestism, transsexuality, gender, sexuality, or related subjects.

This issue I have another means by which each and everyone can contribute for the price of a stamp and some time. You can write a letter to the editor of your favorite newspaper. Subjects to discuss include: the fact that ETVC is here to help those crossgendered people who would like to do more or who have questions; that we are a nonsexual support group open to all persuasions; that the wives sometimes need more help than the crossdresser; Keep it simple and short and if it gets printed send us a copy.

"IT'S NO FUN BEING A GIRL" by D. Keith Mano (1980 Playboy), was contributed to the Article library by a member from Berkeley.

Crossdressers Bureau

We get newsletters from all over the world. Most of these (like this one) are put out by clubs to let their members know what's going on and where.

One newsletter that isn't a club publication is, "The Crossdressers Bureau". It is a collection of articles from within the community as well as articles from various magazines and other publications. It's put together by Gloria Wright and is one of the most interesting publications for our community.

If you are interested in subscribing to this newsletter, send $10 for a 12 month subscription to: G. Wright, P.O. Box 172, Gurnee, IL 60031.

Please mention ETVC if you do subscribe, Gloria has offered to give $10 to ETVC for every four subscriptions she receives from our members.

Get a great newsletter and help ETVC grow.

THE REVERSIBLE SEX-CHANGE OPERATION

by Cara

The response to our column has been overwhelming. I'd like to share some of the mail with you, and invite you all to send in your own anecdotes, questions, problems or gifts.

Dear Cara: Some of my friends think I'm a pervert. Should I tell them the truth, that I have no choice because my wife makes me wear dresses? "Spanked".

Dear "Spanked": Actually, people like you do have many choices. No doubt you have a closet full of outfits to choose from.

Dear Cara: I have been in the closet for many years. This is not because I don't have the courage to come out. This is because my friends have seen me dressed and won't let me out. "Trapped".

Dear "Trapped": Have you tried wearing a veil?

Dear Cara: Every time I go to the Chez there's this drunk who tries to buy me a drink. What should I do? "Teetotaler".

Dear "Tee": Get his name and send it to me immediately.

Dear Cara: I went to the hospital for a hernia and got a sex-change by mistake. Later I accepted a settlement for ten million dollars and cosmetic surgery which made me look like Brooke Shields. But my ordeal was just beginning. Beautiful women are attracted to me, and I am more than ever attracted to them. What should I do? "Tragic Case".

Dear "Case": No doubt you miss getting in fist fights at bars, doing oil changes, drinking six-packs and beating your hairy chest. You could join a female to male cross-dressers group, or you could try to make the best of your new situation. I'm sure many readers of this newsletter will sympathize with you with all their hearts. By the way, what hospital did you say that was?

Dear Cara: My wife is an incorrigible TV. She wears pants, shirts and Reeboks every chance she gets. She even insists on cotton underwear and cotton PJs, and has taken to raiding my wardrobe, and belching at the table. This "buddy" is not the feminine creature I married. What should I do? "Feeling Betrayed".

Dear "Betrayed": Do you love your wife? There are "masculine" feelings in every female. Your wife has accepted them -- why can't you? Allow your new "buddy" to enrich your marriage. Remember: marrying a TV means doubling your wardrobe. Take her shopping at The Men's Warehouse, or go with her to a Niner's game.

That's it for now, ladies. Happy Holidays, and send your letters to...Cara, c/o Turkey Liberation Front, Box R.U.1,2., ETVC.

ETVC/SGA TRAGEDY

by Kim

On September 19th, PATTY FINK, a member of ETVC and SGA, was tragically taken from us by the extreme negligence of a draw bridge operator in Sacramento who was drunk while on duty.

Patty did not attend many of the ETVC meetings, but rather four and a half years ago she helped with the philosophy of ETVC -- That every time you have an event, you have fun; and that ETVC is for all types of people, it's an open group.

At the memorial service on September 26 & 27, over 500 different people attended; only a fraction of the people that Patty touched. Besides ETVC and SGA, Patty led two AA groups, was in ALANON and a children's alcohol and drug group, was a leader in the Sacramento gay community, and the person who started the Sacramento Jazz Festival. Patty truly felt that there was always room to help one more person.

For me, personally, she was a very special lady who helped people in the gender, straight, bi, and gay communities. Even in death she was giving gifts. I and at least one other person were given the gift of emotional release for the first time.

The last time I talked to Patty was on Saturday morning, August 29, for about one hour - we talked about our favorite topic - How to make gender groups grow and prosper.

I would like to take up a collection for Patty and donate it in Patty's name to a group we were both concerned about, the Sacramento Gender Association. A donation of $5 or $10 would be of great help, and I know Patty would have appreciated it. Send donations to: ETVC - PATTY, P. O. Box 6486, San Francisco, California 94401.

Thank you.

Kim

THOUGHTS WHILE DRESSING

by Phyllis Lee

Did you know that in New York City's Garment District, where they were made, girdles and bras were called Hip Holsters and Bosom Bolsters?

One recent evening of dinner at the Chez, Lyn had a narrow escape from drowning in her soup. "It's this new wig, my dear", Lyn explained. "Thirty-two pounds. I'm in trouble if I get even a little bit off center". Andi, no mean wig-out herself, was impressed as she explained, "I usually rest my head on some convenient gentleman's shoulder while dancing. But I could see Lyn's problem at once, and fortunately was on the spot in time to move the soup plate aside. Thirty-two pounds of hair! Magnificent!"

At a recent poker game, Martina was relaxing in only nine-inch heels, and with her waist cinched down to a mere twenty-seven inches. Then she heard the utterly shocking news, that Roxanne was making a pair of eighteen-inch heels! Martina was so upset that she tightened her cinch down to twenty-one inches on the spot, and spent the rest of the evening with a lovely pink blush and very seductive breathing.

At the same poker game, Barbara B. announced that she had finally decided to have the surgery. "Not that surgery, silly!" she said. "It's this new miniaturized telephone that I'm going to have inserted directly into my ear. Then I'll be able to do business wherever I am, without hardly interrupting whatever else I'm doing". She later showed us how she could really do this, explaining "Fingers" poker to us while speaking to one of her clients on the phone in "Seventeen Year Old Valley Girl" language. Fer Shur, it was very impressive; that girl will have much success, by and by.

Seen at the disco the other night, Kimberly Ann was doing some heavy cruising, looking for a navel engagement with some sea men...Amanda was Hermanically sealed into her dress for her recent Cabaret appearance...Cathy C. spoke with Grace, and found much in common, including Gloria...Phyllis did not wear a low-cut top and went almost unrecognized by all: "I faced it", she told friends, "though it did make me buck some". This terrible pun made several of the ladies boo some; there were also a few titters.

COUPLES SOCIALS

With the busy holidays upon us, there are no couples socials scheduled for November or December. We hope we will see you on the 14th of November at the ETVc/TRI-ESS Dinner-Fashion Show; and in December, on the 19th at the popular Christmas Carol Singalong. Look for the Couples Group to again be active the third Thursday in January, and Happy Holidays from our house to your house!

Deadline for the next newsletter is November 23rd.

REBECCA ON THE ROAD

by Becky

Have you ever found yourself in Los Angeles on a weeknight, all dressed up with no place to go, because most of the TV/TS organizations meet on Saturdays? If so, try to arrange your business leaving Tuesday evenings free, because that is the night that the Androgyny group meets in Santa Monica, just west of Los Angeles.

They often have been identified as a support group for transsexuals, but they also welcome transvestites and others interested in crossdressing. Meetings are weekly on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the St. Augustines Church youth room on 4th Street in Santa Monica. The meetings consist of lively discussions concerning gender issues often highlighted by a presentation on pertinent subjects by visiting experts.

The meetings are dismissed promptly at 9:30 p.m., whereupon everybody is invited to reconvene at Zucky's restaurant just up the street at the corner of 5th and Wilshire Blvd. An area at the rear is reserved with a waiter or waitress assigned who is quite cordial and attentive.

The organization is involved in other activities such as banquets and hikes.

If you would like more information, contact Tara Drennen at P.O. Box 1152, Stanton, CA 90680.

If you are in town and need directions to the meeting site, contact Tara at (213) [REDACTED] or Sheila at (213) [REDACTED]

Pajaro Dunes Weekend November 20 - 23

Empty your closets and pack your bags for another wonderful weekend at Pajaro Dunes. For those of you who haven't had the opportunity to attend one of these marvelous events, this is your chance to spend an entire weekend en femme. For those of you who can't make it out to the Fantasia Fair in Provincetown, here's your chance to enjoy a similar experience on a smaller scale. Although the format is very informal, you can always find people to talk to and learn some new tricks of the trade from.

From the informal breakfast (whenever you get up) to the dressed up dinners, all the food is great. And the company is even better.

If you can't make it down for the whole weekend there is limited space for day guests.

For more information or reservations, contact Joan Sheldon, PO Box 7205, San Jose, CA or give her a call at 408 [REDACTED]

You'll hate to head home after this weekend but it will be a great start for your Thanksgiving week.
