Irene Woodward

G. B. Bunnell's Original

Tattooed LADY.

This lady is indelibly marked from head to foot by the points of needles, done by her father when a child, from time to time, between the age of six and twelve. The work far exceeds that of the Tattooed Greek. For the past year she has been the GREATEST FEATURE AT G. B. BUNNELL'S various Museums in New York, Brooklyn and Brighton Beach, where she has been visited by thousands of people, and pronounced by all to be the Greatest Wonder of the 19th Century! The Tattooing is of itself a beautiful dress, and is not offensive to any one, no matter how sensitive they may be.

Don't Fail To See Her!

MR.

Jos. Jenney,

The Great Female Impersonator, in Character Songs.

Also in connection with her is Sig. Giovanna with his Troupe of

50 Performing Birds

Do everything but talk draw Carriages, swing each other, fire of Cannons, ring any number you tell them on the bell, walks the tight rope and carry their flags, walks over the ladder and races home, waltz and many other wonderful feats. They are the finest troupe of birds in this country and must be seen to be appreciated.
