To my surprise I left a little bit of my heart in San Francisco, and that is not all that bad. It was left in the care of dear friends, old and new, that I met there. As predicted, I found tears rolling down my cheeks as the plane taking me back to Southern California lifted off. I'm fighting them back now, but they will be here soon. Crying is good for the soul and last night chatting with "Powder Puff" President; Dee Grady, the subject of the tears that can follow attending an event like "California Dreaming" came up. Seems that after her first time attending a national event she was so overwhelmed, and turned upside down, that she cried too. We all know that emotionally and physically, the salty tears actually can be very much a positive. Tears and laughter are very much the same as they give very much the same release. I knew that attending this affair was important to me. I did not realize how much until I entered the grand ballroom for Saturday night's affair with several hundred folks from the community. To see so many friends and once again, be part of something special, made me once again, bond strongly to my community. I mentioned to Dee that when I first came out, I was skeptical about this "community" I kept hearing about.

When the dinner ended Dee took the stage to start the show, but first, she announced that she wanted to introduce a few special people in attendance. My heart was pounding as Dee Grady said, "From the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" and "TV Epic Magazine," we have Marlayna Lacie." Well, I will tell you that it meant a whole lot to me to be recognized. Hearing the applause was very rewarding because, just like you, I need and enjoy those strokes too! Next up was Melanie Yarborough from San Diego's "Neutral Corner." She received the personal achievement award named after the well known and respected, Alicia Leichy (RIP).

One thing about our community is that if you do good things you are recognized and thanked. That alone is, and should be, all one asks for. Wonderful thing is there are so many great people that are doing things and getting involved. Kudos to all the folks who are part of the fabulous "Movin On" performing group. They did one great job and everyone loved the show. Yours truly, was jumping around like a frog on LSD. Reason is that I wanted to get some nice photos of all the lovely ladies and of the show. Well, I burned up six rolls which probably will give me about two hundred images. You see, it has not been more than three hours since I got back from San Francisco. I will have to wait a day or so to see how many good shots I have. Well, along with all this, now I am making plans to return to San Francisco to attend an event called, "Wigstock West."

Just finished watching the television program called, "Twenty/ Twenty." Barbara Walters was finishing up a wonderful and very insightful interview with Abigail Van Bureen (Dear Abby).

Everyone knows of her and has read her syndicated column and she is like an institution in our culture. A sounding board for all the questions that hit us mere mortals. We as humans are always looking at new things and asking questions, and the people who listen stand out. Barbara said this to Abby, "Everyone reads your column and the demographics are incredible, young and old and in between. What is it that they find that you do that makes them read your column?"

Abby had a great reply which was, "I think people feel that I really care about them and we all want someone to care about us."

I am tearing up a little, but my friends, I have devoted seven to ten years of my life writing to you. We share a special bond like no other, and it brings us together in a myriad of places. Amazing that wonderful friendships can bloom like the desert flowers right before your eyes, and the bottom line in this interaction is being a member of the transgendered community.

In a few days I will be in San Francisco celebrating the most wonderful thing one can ring the bells for. That is the love of finding and being the "woman that is you." You might consider that in reality, it is easy to be a man but shedding the masculine skin for a dress and heels is not easy. Just coming to terms with considering this move in ones' life can be traumatic. Best part is finding out that you are not alone, and there are many men and women who share and enjoy the same things. I have had the pleasure of hearing men verbalize the relief and joy they feel when they pick up their first TV Epic and discover that there are parties and there really are places for men who crossdress to go. It is becoming more obvious to me that I have pretty much settled into a career. Ten years ago, I knew I had to follow my heart and my dreams. Never knew that it would bring me to this point in my life. Have to say that I am happy and one big reason is that in a few days I will be meeting and enjoying the company of many friends, old and new. I have to implore you to consider checking out the local or national calendar of events. Find a party or convention in your area or in a part of the country you would like to visit. Then call around and get the info you need to make a decision. Also, one can go to most conventions and just about every top name vendor in the gender community will be there. You can get everything and more to have the total transformation and be at a great party to strut your stuff.

All too often, when a person reads something in a newspaper or periodical, they believe every word. Many times we never question what is written and take it for the gospel. On the other hand, there has been a saying around for years that brings laughter and says a lot. They say that we all know what the world's oldest profession is, that being a prostitute, but what follows in second place my friend? The answer for most is the lawyer or the journalist. A few minutes ago, I was watching an "ABC Late Night" program and featured guest was writer Janet Cooke. She is the lady who wrote a story back in 1981 or 1982 about an 8 year old girl who was a junkie, shooting up heroin and living a horror show life. Well, Janet wins the big award for this, and then the news comes out that she made it all up. It turned the publishing world upside down.

Credibility had been totally destroyed, and writers have been under the pen, so to speak. I had a good friend say to me, "Come on, everyone knows that writer's are all liars." Needless to say, I was shocked and also interested in how this perception of us keyboard pounders could come about. Seems to me that we have a segment of the population that believes the written word with "out question." Another that looks upon it as all farces and fables devilishly dealt out in ink on paper. Over the years, I have seen where one can stretch the truth and fill in space to create a better story. I also feel that every writer has a responsibility to keep in mind, that is to write the truth as one sees it and never put in ink blatant lies and falsehoods.

It seems that every time I start counting down the calendar to an "On The Scene Nite"; "Anniversary Party," I get real serious and do a lot of soul searching before finding myself hitting this keyboard and writing to you. So after watching Janet Cooke, and being reminded about how writers are perceived, I felt compelled to tell you that I take my role very seriously. More and more, men and women tell me how my columns and words have affected them. This warms my heart, and also brings me to keep in mind what is important when I write to my friends. I say my friends, and you are because we both know that we share a special common bond. One that brings us together are clubs like the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" or a dinner in San Francisco. We, who many say, have the "best of both worlds."

I spent the first ten years of my life in New England, and in school we were taught a lot about the history and customs. Way back when, before established newspapers were around, they had a person who walked from block to block yelling the news. This person was called, "The Town Cryer." I always remember hearing about this welcomed voice of news information and gossip. I see myself as having somewhat the same role in our community. I hope you do to because that has basically been my focus since I first started writing. Time again to thank you all for your wonderful words of thanks and support. It's a two way street, and your encouragement and love are the fuel that keeps my midnight lamp burning.

In junior high school when it came to dealing with the "jocks," I found that they could not be avoided as everyone had to do the "gym class" thing. Yours truly, decided that by going out for football I would prove to myself and the "jocks" that I could deal with them. Needless to say, I did not know the game as well as I should have. The coach, who was a mercenary, offered me a position on the defensive line. You are laughing already, because if you know football and have seen photos of me, it is obvious that the coach should have given me a position where I was holding the football and being chased. You see, I realized that if these guys were chasing me to stop me from scoring, I could do well at avoiding them and I would certainly have been good because I had run from these guys to save my neck quite a few times. But here I was, in this crouch position with a guy who was looking at me like I stole and wore his sister's dress to last night's "sock hop." At home that night, I felt legally beat up and bruised badly. I realized that I had failed miserably through bad judgment and inexperience. I should have studied the game and put more time into making those decisions. For some reason, that I did not understand, the macho boys in uniform singled me out for this attention, shall we say. For years I stayed away from sports and jocks. My feeling was that they were over muscled egotistical beat up artists with no individuality. The testosterone driven "pack" mentality at it's best.

Years ago, I read a story written by a crossdresser that hit home. The thing is that when Rick transformed into Rene, she then went out to find jocks to "tease and taunt." Rick wrote that as a teenage male, he was picked on and beat up by the "local jocks" for being a "sissy." So Rene has her thrills going out and enjoying having those grown up jocks chase "her skirt," as she put it. A few years ago, I was chatting to Wendy, when a big fellow came in and sat down beside me. Mr. Man as we shall call him, offered to buy me a cocktail but I declined. He insisted on talking to me and engaging me in a conversation. I hit him with, "So what brings you into town?" He was with a professional football team and showed me his "Super Bowl" ring, and was in town to play the L.A. Raiders. I could not help it, and my next question was, "And I suppose you have been playing since junior high?" Before he answered my question, he looked at me and there was a very long pause. Yes, he did play in junior high, and his team won a state championship way back when. I could not help thinking about Rick and Rene, and here is this pro football player hitting on me. You can bet that he would have loved to help Miss Marlayna put on some knee pads that he would happily provide. No, I was not going to be on my knees this evening or any evening with Mr. Man! Thank you!!!

Why am I on this thing about jocks? Well, last night, I witnessed something that I have been hoping and waiting for, for some time. There is a person playing basketball for a team called, "The Chicago Bulls" and his name is Dennis Rodman. When he first started dating Madonna, and having his nose and other parts of his body pierced, the "media" noticed. Soon, he's getting lots of "press" as they call it. Well deserved, as Mr. Rodman is very much a rebel in a time when the "NBA" (National Basketball Association), would like to keep it's "family values" image. There is nothing wrong with that, but for the fact that Dennis keeps breaking the rules. Seems that he is super talented and equally eccentric among his peers. There is no one like him in the "NBA." Dennis has to be different and also loves attention, and last year I said to myself, "This jock with yellow hair and a pierced navel is a "Drag Queen" waiting to happen." Like the potted plant on the desk in the movie "Cactus Flower," Dennis Rodman has gone from dinner jackets to flamboyant drag over the last two years. Should you question this, then you did not see Dennis when he did a special "guest appearance" to sign and promote his new book. Well, Ms. Denise was wearing a fun halter top along with blonde locks and some fun dangling earrings. Lipstick was a dark purple, and well, need I say more? I have to say whoever helped Dennis with his make-over did him good honey! Next day his or should I say "her" photo was on the front page of a number of sports sections around the country. At this time the "Da Bulls" are in a tough series with the nasty "New York Knicks." I wonder if any of the "Knicks" players will have the nerve or courage to ask Mr. Rodman about his "en-femme" activities off court! "Gender Bending Hits The NBA," is my headline, and I think it is great, and why not. Hopefully, Dennis will hear about Lady Bunny putting on "Wigstock West" in San Francisco. I just got my tickets today and what a treat it would be to have some "camera time" and "girl talk" with Denise, excuse me Dennis Rodman. Would love to ask him this question, "Who does your make-up?"

As many of you know, I have always encouraged men who crossdress to make a point of educating themselves about the transgendered lifestyle and the role gender plays in our society and culture. Over the last few months, I have contacted a number of publishing houses...asking them for copies of books that I am interested in reviewing. Today I received a book from the folks at "Indiana University Press" entitled, "Bike Boys, Drag Queens, and Superstars," by Juan A Suarez. It is avant-garde, mass culture, and gay identities in the 1960's underground cinema. This book contains a lot of information on Andy Warhol and the New York scene...a time when art was being presented to us that went against the grain(did not conform to that days' rigid standard of what art should be)...and blew those concepts all to hell.

Speaking of blowing things all to hell(or to kingdom come)...Yours truly, received another book in the mail. I am censoring myself and not writing my feelings about this book and who wrote it. No name of book, no name of author...a few pages in this book contain more than a few uncomplimentary and negative things about which are too close to me for me to write a fair and unbiased review. I have focused and devoted the last ten years of my life to presenting a "positive image" of myself and the community I belong to and love. I would feel like a traitor if I gave the general public views and stories that presented our lifestyle in a bad light. One can write a story in many different ways to get ones' point across. We all see things differently. More than one talk show host has found time to focus on negative things written...and bring them up to in-house and at-home audiences. This can hurt individuals and harm the group as a whole.

Needless to say, I have written enough on a subject that I have considered not mentioning it at all. As a writer, I find great joy in spreading good news...insightful (hopefully educating), entertaining stories, news, and harmless gossip. Recently, a comment made to me was, "You've been writing and doing your 'parties' for our community for years. You must really care." I really must, and I really do! As long as I am "strutting in heels" I will be writing to you, my dear friends. Live happy, be well...

Love Marlayna

*Y*ours truly, has to get herself in gear and start getting "dolloed up," as I call it. Sounds like the name of a off Broadway stage production, "All Dolled Up," featuring so and so in the biggest drag fest farce to hit the stage since. Oh well, enough of that, and back to where I wanted to go with this, and that is, I realize that I have not had a real vacation in about three years. Way back when, before I became so involved, "shall we say." Most summers I hit the Eastern "High" Sierra mountains. Doing solo backpacking trips to fish for Golden Trout and spend empty time. I loved those trips and plan to make an effort to again take a trip and do a little camping and fishing.

One could say that since I travel occasionally for conventions, that I get vacations a plenty. Not true, as on these trips my main focus is taking care of business. After the interview and the "camera time," it is time for that R&R we all need. So maybe like you my friend, I am still trying to find the center and balance. I feel I am doing well, and have the love and support of many in the community.

We all go home at night and most to empty rooms or homes. We tear it all down and sift through the pretzel logic. Most times, after the ups and downs, you find your answers. Some come sooner than you think, and others later like last years mail. Pulling it all back it is then time to go on with it and through it all. That "IT" being that nebulous thing that we all churn through our minds. Did I do the right thing for me first of all, and will my decision be a positive or a negative in the book that is my life. At this time, I know I have thus far made all the choices because I have had the opportunity to hit the road. To put on the backpack and climb a trail to enjoy the space and wilderness. I realize that when it boils down to it, I decided to get "dolloed up" and hit the infamous Hollywood 101. The one I will be on in about two and a half hours.

Amazing you say to yourself, that Ms. Lacie hits the keyboard with these vacation memories. Looking back on decisions and consequences, and many realities that resulted. Bottom line is, that I am happier now than I have ever been in my life. I am enjoying myself and know that I have been doing good for myself and my community. I also know that the make-up mirror will be mine in five minutes and eventually I will turn off the switch. There is one thing that I will never be able to stop, but I know it well and enjoy it as a learning experience. This is what you and I share that is so very special, and I refer to it as dealing with coming out.

Dealing with Coming Out

by Marlayna Lacie

Today I visited Patty Barton, and she looked over the two hundred photos I took at "California Dreamin'." She picked out about thirty, and they are going to Dee Grady along with a few copies of the new TV Epic. Patty then looked over the photo spread I put together and penned in the photo captions. I do hope you enjoy the photos and the stories/articles that Jim Bridges, Melissa Foster, and yours truly contributed this month. I know all who attended had a wonderful time. Not only will the photos entertain you, but take a good look at them and focus on all the smiling faces. They come through like the sunshine breaking through a cloudy day sending those shade makers to another world. Those times of joy and laughter with friends old and new. Traveling by van like the "Steppin Out" group or taking a flight from "LAX" like I did. We meet and special things happen. Yes, it is a new town and new places to enjoy and see. Most important is that you are with a group of dear friends. You know in your heart that you made all the right choices, except for that new dress that seemed to look better on the mannequin in the window than on you.

Sitting here, two weeks later, with six envelopes of photos and countless pages of copy, I realize that our community is going and growing stronger everyday. I predict that some evening there will be a time when the transgendered will be given equal rights and discrimination in all forms. I may not be in heels there with you to celebrate, but I will tell you I have a dream and it will be true for you and our community. I may not be there to walk and dance down Sunset Blvd., but I have a dream that some evening you will be able to go any where "en-femme." That no person shall slander you or catcall you with vicious verbal assaults and slurs. I have a dream that because we have the "feminine image" that sexism will end. You see, when a crossdresser is attacked and assaulted, it is a man wearing a dress, but deeper than that is the issue of the "feminine image." I have a dream that someday or evening our community will be at the same place as the gay and lesbian communities. I wish to hell Newt Gingrich was an uncle or something. They have political power and are integrating themselves into mainstream society when thirty years ago they were social outcasts. I have had this dream for some time, and I wanted to share it with you. Look up the word community in the dictionary, and then look up salvation. Maybe they will come together for you, like they did for me. I had night marish visions of being one of the lost and lonely ones.

If my memory serves me well, about the fourth time I went to the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" way back when, someone I was chatting with asked me if I was involved in the community. I recall that I had no idea what she was talking about. When this lady informed me about the support groups and organizations around the country, I was all ears. Where was this nebulous community, and how could I be part of it? Interesting that the event I just came back from is called, "California Dreamin'."

Nothing I expected, but still am feeling, is the psychological shock waves after a big event. Usually they ride about one and a half to two weeks. I know they are here and the way I handle them is this. They come with the territory, just like the ups and downs on a mountain trail. I look at these issues and emotions as part of dealing with coming out.

NEW To this. Need someone to please and to teach me to be good. I love to suck on a lollipop! I can be a grown-up nasty girl too. Nice ass and legs, smooth skin, and a thick 7". As you know this issue is a special one featuring coverage of "Powder Puffs"; "California Dreamin' 96" affair. Held in San Francisco, it was special because so many "ladies" from the Southland made the trek north.

Saturday evening was the big affair with awards and all. On stage first was the wonderful and charming, Dee Grady. When I saw Dee onstage, I decided that my interview with her would go in this series. One "wonderful" I have, is the freedom to pretty much choose my material and decided where it goes. Dee is a star and celebrity in our community, and I feel all will agree. Thanks to Dee for taking the time to chat with me and to "Pathway Communications" for making it all possible. Surely Dee will agree that in most instances one must seize the moment. Sometimes we ourselves are victims of someone who recognizes and takes the opportunity to get some of your time or attention.

It is Saturday evening and the whole group is sitting down to dinner. I arrive late, because I was in no rush, having earlier had dinner in the in house eatery. Hit my plastic cash as planned, before typing up a few pages after having cocktails and din-din. My "camera time" eyes focused on "Powder Puff" President; Dee Grady. Yes, I was out of my seat (I was waiting for dessert) and grabbed a briefly unoccupied seat next to Dee. No, I did not feel guilty at all as she started to cut up her prime rib and I told her that I wanted to have a chat with her. Now, I would not do this to most ladies, but Dee and I have known each other for quite a few years. She was more than happy to accommodate me as she enjoyed her dinner. So with out further ado and trivialities I give you dinner talk with Dee.

Marlayna: So how has it been going since you took over (September 95)?

Dee: It's been a lot of work and it's been a lot of fun. Patience has been paying off. Attendance is up and so is membership.

Marlayna: What is your membership now?

Dee: Our basic membership right now is about one hundred people. It is down a little bit because some of our members branched off into new groups such as "Neutral Corner" in San Diego, "Born Free" in Riverside, and "LKO" (Ladies Knight Out).

Marlayna: What do you think was your biggest challenge when you took over?

Dee: Bringing the people back! The group had stagnated and basically the leadership had become more focused and involved in putting on and promoting the "California Dreamin" event. This is a big affair for us and it does take a lot of time. It takes at least a year to put on, and so a lot of people on the prior board were more concerned with making sure this was a hit!

Marlayna: Well, that is good but are you as new president going to focus on other issues and social events on a smaller scale?

Dee: Yes, we now have our first social event on the first Saturday of every month at "Ozz Supperclub" in Buena Park. Entertaining is the well known Rudy DeLaMore, and before he comes on we have dinner. The cabaret is fun and Rudy knows all us ladies. He loves us and the folks at "Ozz" love us.

Marlayna: So it's sort of like your home away from home?

Dee: Right, some of these members want to do something a little more social than a meeting. Traveling to the "Queen Mary" from Orange County can be a bit much, and this here gives us a nice relaxed place and it is easy to plan. All I have to do is call up and make reservations. The people here enjoy having us and "Ozz" is a fun place to go.

Marlayna: So next year, I hear that the location of the event will be on "Queen Mary," the boat, the boat, the boat? (Said rapidly with enthusiasm!!!)

Dee: Yes, we love to say that it is the boat, and we are teaming up with the "International Foundation Of Gender Education" and the convention people in the organization. The event will be called, "California Unity" and we will be getting support from a number of other groups in South- ern California. We just received the good news that some Northern California groups also want to be involved, which will make "California Unity" so much better.

Marlayna: So, your not doing a newsletter anymore?

Dee: Just my Presidential column, and actually, I never did the newsletter. I did the social happenings and then when I took over the presidency I dropped that.

At that moment I spied a friend walking by and asked her to take a photo of Dee and I, and she was more than happy to comply. After we finished the mandatory "camera time" we got off track of the interview as someone asked about the camera I use. It is a "Yashica T-4," and has served me well.

Marlayna: So what is former President; Patty Barton's new position in the group?

Dee: She moved down to vice-president, and I really need her experience and guidance.

Marlayna: You know recently, I wrote that the success of your group has many reasons and that is an important one.

Dee: Yes, they all rallied around to help and support me, and everything I asked of them they have done. We have gone from a small local group, to a group that has spawned at least two other groups, starting and continuing "California Dreamin" for six events up to now, and becoming widely involved with the events first appearance in San Francisco. "Powder Puff" has also associated itself with the "Renaissance Group" from the Eastern part of the country, and will now be a part the "California Unity" affair with the "International Foundation Of Gender Education" and other groups next April.

Marlayna: When I first heard about this event and that it was being held in San Francisco, I called the folks at "Pathway" and asked them to let me cover the party for TV Epic. I am very happy to be here, and I want to thank you for all your time and efforts in making a better, larger, and stronger community.

Dee: Well, it was a pleasure to have you and we shall be looking forward to seeing you at next month's meeting.

Well, I have to say that I will certainly do my best to attend the victory party with new prez; Dee Grady at the helm, and "California Unity" in 1997, the "Powder Puff" group grows and continue to go strong.

"OUT ON HIWAY 69"

FADE IN: THE MUFF MOTEL - HIWAY 69 - NIGHT

HEAVENLY PUSSYPANTS is swigging cheap wine from a gallon jug. She's partially reclined because the rest of her sexy body is in tight bondage. Rubber toys and odd pieces of lingerie dot the cheesy motel room floor around her.

"Ahhh...nothing like good wine. It tastes like freedom!"

She's not a large person and speaks with a Southern drawl. She's a dizzy blonde lesbian transvestite ex-con. Her manner is rough, yet somehow her femininity always shines thru:

"Oh hi, ya'll! They call me Heavenly Pussypants. I'm a road dog, a buddy, as they say in Frontera Institute for Women. Spent two years in max security for armed robbery at a Piggly Wiggly. My old lady was a stud broad, named Rat Jacket. She was a member of the 400 club. Ya'll know, sentenced to 400 years or longer. (Drinks more wine and burps) Big Mama takes care of me now. Big Mama's motorcycle vibrates my little pussy box all day. At night Big Mama's tongue takes over. (Looks out the window) And I do believe it's getting darkish outside (winks) if ya'll know what I mean..."

BIG MAMA is a tall vulgar bitch in skin-tight black leather with lace-up spike heel boots made for licking. She spends too much time on her bike and between Pussypant's legs:

"Fuck me, think I got the crotch rot again. Pussypants, come give Mama a big wet kiss, you slut!"

Big Mama bends over, Pussypants plants a wine wet kiss on her leathers ass.

"Pussypants, you're becoming a lushbag wino!"

"Better than that pruno in the joint. 'Course you taste better than black strap molasses, Big Mama!"

Big Mama crams a rubber ball gag into Pussypant's mouth...she pretends to struggle against it:

"Don't pretend with me Pussy. I know you fuckin' crave this, it's somthin' you never got from that fuckin' Rat Jacket. She's still on the inside...400 years should be just about right for that crazy cunt!"

Big Mama spanks her bound lover. They're both diggin' on it big time. There's a loud racket outside. Big Mama:

"What the spruce fucking goose is going on out there?"

The motel room door is forced open slamming shut behind RAT JACKET. She's tall, she's bad, she's insanely jealous, she's crashed out of prison and she's wearing a huge strap-on dildo.

"Get away from my Pussypants you lesbo seat sniffing pre-verrt!"

Mama sez: "Rat Jacket, I always did say you were a dildo!"

Jacket: "Cashed in my juice card. Figured you two would be out on Hiway 69. (looks at Pussypants) What have you done to my baby you sado-dyke! I want my squeeze back!"

"Forget it enema brains!"

"You don't scare me none Big Mama. I'm gonna hit you so hard they'll arrest you in Barstow for speeding!"

"Let's fuckin' rock Rat's ass!"

It rivals the big lesbian gang fight of '92 in Clitville. These bitches go at each other while Pussypants struggles to get loose. Finally Big Mama pins Rat Jacket down. Big Mama:

"Just can't cut the Grey fuckin' Poupon can you convict!"

Rat Jacket throws Big Mama off. They jump up, circle, it's life or death.

"I'll cut the mustard alright. I'll cut you!"

Rat pulls a shiny steel-bladed stiletto. The Muff Motel's neon sign reflects on the deadly blade. Big Mama backs off; from her motorcycle jacket she pulls a .357 Mag pistol. "Just like a dildo bringing a knife to a gun party!"

Big Mama laughs but Rat Jacket has survived too long inside a hellish women's prison to be taken this easy. She lashes out her booted foot. The pistol clatters to the floor, beyond reach. Big isn't laughing now. She grabs a scuzzy pair of pink panties on the floor and wraps them around one hand.

Rat lunges with the knife, slicing the crusty panties. Blood soaks the panties. Now Rat has Big Mama pinned to the floor. The stiletto blade inches closer and closer to Big Mama's face. "Gonna cut you a pretty new face!"

Pussypants looks on helplessly shaking her head no, no, no! The blade just kisses a teardrop tattoo on Big's face. Pussypants kicks the gun to Big Mama. She grabs it and knocks Rat out cold.

Tired and breathless, Big Mama moves over to Pussypants, putting the gun down at Pussy's feet. She unties her lover's hands.

"Baby Pussy you saved my life. Everthin's gonna be fine..."

Big Mama doesn't see Rat Jacket stir and come to. Rat's got her knife. Pussypants tries to warn Big Mama with her eyes and moaning. Too fucking late, Rat Jacket brings the knife down to Big Mama's throat and sinks cold steel into her red neck. Big Mama wails:

"Top o' the world Ma...Pussypants, my pussy, pussy..."

Yeah, a lesbionic to the last. She slumps forward, her face buried in her lover's crotch. A victorious Rat Jacket:

"She was too fuckin' soft. Prison makes ya' hard. Survive or die! (She holds her open arms out to Pussypants.) 'It's just you and me now, sweet tongue. The outside's no good for us. I'll take you back to Frontera. It'll be like old times co-co pop."

Don't think so. Pussypants grabs the gun at her feet. BLAM-BLAM-BLAM! Three magnum slugs pound Rat Jacket's gut. Staggering back, arms still spread open, beseeching:

"Why? Why? (coughs thin blood, looks skyward) Those 400 years. Guess I beat the screws. Ha... (looks back down) But why have you done killed me Pussypants? Why???"

She'll never hear the answer. Rat collapses to the floor, deader than a heifer with mad cow disease. Pussypants finally takes the ball gag out. She picks up the jug wine. Relishes another long swig. Her pretty mouth overflows, wetting cheeks and chin, dripping onto her hot pussy.

"Why? I'll tell you all...why. 'Cus this here wine may be cheap, but like I said...it tastes like freedom!!!"

International Foundation of Gender Education

By Jim Bridges

This year marked the 10th annual "International Foundation of Gender Education Convention." I'm proud to say I have attended nine of these. This year the convention was held in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

There was a real breakthrough for the gender community at this year's convention. A new award was created this year to show appreciation of the more than fair treatment and right to a dignified position of transgendered people in the work place. This was achieved in part on the tremendous effort of a transsexual post-op by the name of Michelle Martin. Michelle is employed by "American Airlines."

The recipient of this year's award for "Diversity in Industry" was Bob Baker, V.P. of "American Airlines." Not only did Mr. Baker accept the invitation, he attended with 20 employees and their wives. The company was given this award for their progressive thinking of equal rights for all employees regardless of their sex, gender, or choice of lifestyle. There were two transsexual post-ops in attendance who's transition was on the job. Part of their surgery was even covered by company insurance. Our hats off "American Airlines!"

Another breakthrough was the appearance of Dolores Fridge. Ms. Fridge is the "Deputy Commissioner of Human Rights of the State of Minnesota." This bill will put an end to discrimination of gendered people in the work place as well as renting an apartment or home. Again, our hats off to the Governor and his staff!

The "Banquet Awards" was entertained this year by the "Imperial Sovereign Court of the Ice Castle." The opening number was a spicy Latin number done by Miss Lola.

Never mind the guy on the right, the attractive lady is Sandra Cole. Dr. Cole was a recipient of the "Trinity Award" this year.

Here are Anglea and Roberta trying to decide who has the most beads and sequins on their dress.

Stephanie in a stunning multi colored beaded dress.

Lynn from New York.

Virginia Prince, the "Grand Dame" of the gender community. Virginia started the first club for crossdressers in 1962. It was called, "Hose and Heels." She later started a national organization with her friend Carol Beecroft. This group is called, "TRI-ES."

Anglea says,
"I win!"

I feel this year's "International Foundation of Gender Education" was the best ever. So many new and exciting things on the horizon for the gender community. So kick open that closet door ladies and make you entrance now!
My best wishes to you all,
J.B.

Dr. Sheila Kirk, the author of numerous books on hormones and a wide variety of other on the gender community was the recipient of this year's "Lifetime Contribution Award." Sheila has been a close and dear friend of mine for many, many years. I am very pleased to see her receive this wonderful and long overdue award.

Mariette Patty Allen has been with "International Foundation of Gender Education" since the beginning. Mariette has published a wonderful book of photography about the gender community, it's called, "Transformations."

Here are some of the happy ladies attending the "International Foundation of Gender Education Awards."

Miss Dee was a real trooper coming in between shows to entertain us with some real foot stomper.

Getting out and doing things are really important to people who are transgendered because it helps you to learn to express yourself and deal with your transgendered lifestyle. Every year I make it a point to get together with a number of my friends and have a party weekend.

I had these friends come down on Thursday night and we rented a couple hotel rooms at the "Beverly Garland" in Studio City. We dressed up and went out to get something to eat, and then stopped by the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" to see who was hanging out in the King's den. Then we went back to the hotel to get some sleep. Friday we got up and did some sight seeing and then some shopping. Then after we went out to lunch we went back to take a nap. About 4:00 p.m. I picked up the birthday cake and took it to the "Queen Mary." After that, I went back and got cleaned up and dressed up. I then went to Jim Bridges to have my make-up done for my birthday dinner at 7:30 p.m. where I was joined by Dehania, Toni, and David from San Francisco, and Patrica from Tijuana. I had several others say they were going to come to the dinner, but they didn't show up. I was a little disappointed, but realized that there are a lot of people in the community who say they are going to be somewhere and they don't show up. After dinner we went to the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" where we met some more friends; Charlene, Ziz, Darla and her girlfriend. We had front row seats and were served champagne while we watched the show.

"After dinner we went to the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" where we met some more friends; Charlene, Ziz, Darla and her girlfriend. We had front row seats and were served champagne while we watched the show."

Darla is a cartoonist who has done a number of comic strips. She sketched each of the performers as they performed and gave them to me at the end of the show. We had ice cream cake and of course, we had the traditional "Queen Mary" birthday picture taken. After the show we stayed around and talked for a while and then went out for coffee. Then we went back to the hotel, Patrica stayed the night, and we slept in. My three friends from San Francisco went to "Universal Studios" Saturday while I took the left over cake home, and then came back to the hotel and took a nap. When Dehania and the others got back from "Universal Studios" we went to get something to eat then cleaned up to go out that night. There was a special event that was supposed to be held so we all decided to dress up. Since I had gotten ready early we were all talking and Dehania suggested we go out and take some pictures around the hotel, between the two cameras, we took five roles of film. We had a lot of people checking us out, but the hotel has had many of the Imperial Court Coronations held there so they had no problem and we had a good time.

We headed out for the "Wig Fest West '95" to get good seats. It turned out that they didn't get enough contestants so they had a fashion show and special entertainment. After the show, a bunch of the girls decided to go to After Hours at the "Lodge." We danced until 4:00 a.m. then headed back to the hotel.

Sunday at noon we all met to go to Sunday brunch at the "Ventura Inn." We sat and talked for quite a while and then went back to the hotel so

GENDER EXPRESSION

Dehania and the girls could get ready for their flight to San Francisco. After they left for the airport Linda and I went over to the "Queen Mary" and had a couple drinks. Linda had to leave early, but I decided to stay around for the Sunday night dance party. About midnight I went back to the hotel to get some sleep. The next morning I had to get up early and clean up so I could go home and on to work. It was really a good weekend and something I will remember for a long time to come.

In the past couple of years I really have found out how important it is to express your feminine side. It really makes you feel good about yourself and it's fun meeting new friends and spending time with old ones. Sure the party was over for another, but it gave me a chance to spend time with people and get to know them better. I met a couple who I have corresponded with for several years, they were really wonderful and they have invited me to come to dinner some night. They are special people and as soon as I can find some free time I plan to take them up on it.

I had to go to a conference in mid August so Dehania invited me to stay at her place over in Richmond. It's really great, so many good things come out of getting out and doing things. It's almost like if I wanted to do something every weekend I could, but there are times that I take a rest. The main thing is that I know I can do it whenever I feel the need and feel good about it.

You can always find places to go, wherever it is, in the local area or if you like to travel, there are conventions, conferences, and beauty pageants all over the world where you can dress up, be yourself, and just enjoy life. Being transgendered can be whatever you want to make it. You can stay in your own little closet at home or you can get out and go to group meetings or go to dinner and to the clubs. Of course if you want to look nice you need to go shopping for cloths, and at times it's nice to treat yourself to a make-over from Jim Bridges. Maybe get yourself a new wig or earrings. Looking good is a way to feel good. The main thing is expressing yourself and having friends you can share with.

It is quite a task when you are really active. I have met a lot of wonderful people over the years from all over the world through correspondence and have had a chance to meet some of them. Some wonder why I don't write longer letters, but after I give them a brief idea of my schedule they wonder how I find time to correspond at all. Besides writing a column for TV Epic, I also sit on the "Board of Directors" for two different committees that I am involved in which takes a lot of time traveling to board meetings and helping to promote activities that are going on. I also try to attend a lot of the conferences and visit different groups around the country. This coming weekend I will be spending time at a national beauty pageant in Chicago with a number of friends. Then of course, there is the fact that I have a regular job, five days a week, and I fly for the "Air Force Reserves" one weekend a month. Yes, it keeps me busy, but it is worth it all. I have been very fortunate and have been able to travel all over the world.

Recently, I was in Thailand on business and was able to meet with a local surgeon who performs the Sex Reassignment surgery, and because I travel so much, I get lots of frequent flyer miles so I get free trips to go enjoy myself.

For this year's trip I am probably going to go to New York City again for Christmas to spend with my friends. Life is what you make of it, good or bad, whatever you want to make of it. Expressing your feminine feelings can really be wonderful. It's up to you to make the decision and get out and enjoy your life. If you have any questions or just want to share something drop me a line.

Melissa Foster was Marlayna's "special guest."

FANTASY Fashion Fetish NIGHT

"ON THE SCENE NITE"

Thanks to Miss Marla for helping with the buffet.

Jim Bridges with one of his "ladies."

Little Debbie leaves the door to enjoy some cheesecake.

"Hey Tess, looking good girl!"

"Yes Marlayna, you can take my photo for TV Epic."

A visit to "Wendy's corner."

Have to start off by inviting you to this month's party which will be on the evening of the 13th. As you see, I have put up some new decorations and I plan to continue.

This evening my special guest was TV Epic's own Melissa Foster. On the scene this evening were Jim Bridges and a new lady friend. Joni Deere and lovely Tess arrived with a group of friends. The "Back Bar" was SRO (Standing Room Only), but the vibes were great. All were enjoying themselves and munching down the goodies Miss Marla and yours truly put out.

Once again, I want to invite you to attend. Lately, I have been spending time at the door greeting new guests. So I shall look forward to greeting and meeting you. Remember that the complimentary TV Epic's go fast, and the fabulous "door prizes" are donated by Mistress Antionette and her wonderful staff at "Versatile Fashions."

Big thanks to all who attend the parties as it is you that they are for. You who deserve the credit for the success of my very special "On The Scene Nite" party.

TIRED OF LOSING PICTURES? WE HAVE A SOLUTION!

personal Stationery

We know how frustrating it can be to lose a picture by sending it to an irresponsible person or couple who neglect to return it. That's why Pathway Communications is now offering a special service for our readers which will safeguard your pictures from loss, and it's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

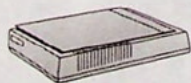

Here's how it works:

You mail us your picture(s) along with the attached order form, making sure to select the stationery and paper style you want. Remember: send high quality photos that are in focus and have good contrast and tone. The better your picture, the better your stationery.

2

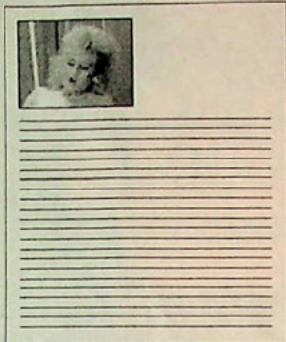

We scan your picture(s) into a computerized format and convert them to gray-scale pictures, just like those you see in this magazine. We then place the images onto stationery that you can write on and mail to others.

Then we mail back your original picture(s) and stationery, with a complete black and white reproduction of your picture(s) on each and every one, along with any requested text information (such as a greeting, P.O. Box and/or a phone number). That's all there is to it!

HOLIDAY INN

CALIFORNIA DREAMERS

All the days were sunny, the clouds all blown away. Men "en-femme" were all over San Francisco on a beautiful spring day. Many of the ladies took the jet up from LA. "California Dreaming" was so wonderful. I have to say that yes, you should have been there.

Years ago I went to my first "Powder Puff" meeting and after I was a stronger and more confident "lady." Finally I met and embraced this "community" I had heard about. I am pleased and proud to be one of the writers that "Pathway Communications" asked to cover this event. Happy that I made the decision to pick up this event.

Maybe like I did years ago, you wonder and question if there really is a "community." The stories, articles, and photos in this issue should answer any questions you have. It should also inspire you to consider joining.

As you can see all who attended had a wonderful, memorable time and being in San Francisco was terribly exciting. Big thanks to Patty Barton and Dee Grady for assisting me in putting together the material for this special "California Dreamin'" issue of TV Epic.
