THE SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING: ETVC-STYLE

At this time of year, people often think of turkeys or gifts. For me, it's a time to reflect and give thanks for all that we have as individuals and as a transgender group.

As ETVC members, we enjoy a very safe, comfortable place to meet at the Chez Mollet. We are thankful for individuals like the Chez' owner, Lennie Mollet, for providing such a lovely setting for our socials.

Thankfully, we live in the great San Francisco Bay Area, where dozens of restaurants, bars, and stores support transgendered people.

As individuals, we have a lot to be thankful for, especially our health and the company of our best friends. As an open group, we share our pains and joys, and find common support. Yes, this is truly a time to be thankful.

I hope you are enjoying being a member of ETVC. And I ask that you offer your help on one of our committees-- outreach or social-- or assist with any of the events or activities we have. In doing so, you will help ETVC maintain its leadership role in the transgender community.

And, finally, I sincerely wish all of you a VERY HAPPY AND JOYOUS HOLIDAY SEASON!!!

 NEXT SOCIAL COMMITTEE MEETINGS WILL BE ON:

Major Presentation at Institute for Advanced Study of Human Sexuality

Eleven people recently made presentations about transvestism, transsexualism, and drag at the Institute for the Advanced Study of Human Sexuality in San Francisco. The program was part of graduate level training for sex therapists. In the 10-hour presentation there were panels, one-on-one talks, demonstrations, and audience participation. Demonstrations covered several key topics. One was a slide presentation on the lifelong growth and development of a TV. Another was an actual dilation process by a transsexual who had just had surgery. And still another was a mirthful portrayal of a classic fetish. Ten of the eleven participants, including two spouses, were ETVC members. Feedback on the program was excellent, and ETVC can be proud of its role in this major educational effort.

An Editorial

The Transsexual Voice: Where Is It?

Like many similar organizations around the country, ETVC extends a promise to TSs and TVs. Why? Because, despite research and and clinical findings to the contrary, people see the two groups as related.

It were as if there was a club where poker players and bridge players both played. They like card games, so they should both belong to the same club, right? I'm not sure. Let's look at some key differences.

TS's are seriously concerned about changes in anatomy, health maintenance, legalities, relationships, and careers. These changes must be managed on a daily basis, in a set of social groundrules very different from those first learned. The TS MUST learn to live successfully in her/his role.

The concerns of TVs are not nearly as compelling. There is the cat-and-mouse game of passing; skirting the edges of discovery by lovers, family, friends, neighbors; and campy expressions of fetish interests. But in the morning it's all over. Business as usual. Did it REALLY matter if you passed?

So, what about ETVC? The ETVC Executive Committee reflects transvestic values in its decision-making. Why not? They're all TVs. To expect different would be like trying to squeeze a liberal decision from the Rehnquist court.

What's a girl to do? Depends were you sit. If you're a TV, everything's just peachy. If you're a TS, there's an opportunity to shape a program you can live with.

The call to action is to TSs. Come out of the closet. Participate on the Social and Outreach Committees. Elect representatives in next May's election. The transsexual voice belongs in our chorus.

FIGMENTS OF OUR REALITY

Item. The APA-- American Psychological Association-- held its annual convention for FIVE days in FIVE major hotels in the nation's capital in August. The program catalog was the size of a medium phone book-- 300+ pages. Over 4,000 papers were presented in more than 1,000 sessions!!! Guess how many had something to do with transanything. Zero. None. Zip. Nada. Hello? Is anyone home? Or is this a case of shirking shrinks?

Item. "How to Beat the High Cost of Dressing"...that's the title of several pages of great tips in the October issue of Glamour. And if that doesn't arouse your interest, try the September Vogue-- several hundred pages of very up-to-date looks that tantalize. And if that doesn't arouse your interest, drop into Frederick's for a copy of their Christmas catalog. Or maybe you're just not into pictures....

Item. If you're not into pictures, how about games? Infocom, the company that makes Zork, has just released "Moonmist,"-- an interactive Gothic mystery.

If the player identifies him/herself as a man, Lord Jack will shake "his" hand. If the player identifies her/himself as a woman, Lord Jack kisses "her" hand.

Item. "Thanks" to Cheryl, who made ETVC her home-away-from-home at our September social. Gave us a good update on the Great Chicago Convention. Hometown? Manassas, Virginia.

Item. Computer shows are borrring, right? Maybe not. At the Federal Computer Conference in Washington last month, a FTM TV (I guess) was spotted among the attendees. Three-piece suit. The works. Eyes widened and sighs of amazement arose. Isn't that about all that ever happens when you get read?

Official business that "The Bylaws" say we have to report: Membership is 147 vs 145 at the same time last year. The bank balance is $1379.02. This constitutes neither a recommendation to buy or sell.

ORGANIZATION NOTES

ETVC

Regularly scheduled socials, special interest groups, and committee activities serve the needs of members and provide opportunities for member activities in ETVC. A five-person Executive Board sets the major direction for ETVC. The Education & Outreach Committee develops and delivers public and internal programs to promote gender choice. The Social Committee develops social themes and handles event logistics. Our programs depend on member participation to create and administer them. We solicit your ideas and active assistance in making all this possible.

A monthly social meeting is held on the last Thursday of each month at the Chez Mollet Restaurant, 527 Bryant Street (between 3rd and 4th), San Francisco. While there is usually a "theme," participation is optional, as there is no particular dress code. No-host cocktails and dining facilities are available. Dinners are served until 10 PM. If you plan to have dinner, please phone the Chez Mollet at 415-495-4527 for table reservations.

Other events include a monthly Saturday evening dinner, and a Poker Social on the second Friday of each month. Anyone who is in a relationship with a gender-challenged person will find helpful support in an active Significant Others Support (SOS) Group, and a Couples Social Group, both of which meet monthly.

All events are listed on the Calendar of Events on Page 3. Specific details on immediate events can be found on Page 2. For further information, please use the phone numbers listed on the calendar, or make inquiries at any ETVC social.

All-inclusive gender support groups meet on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays, and last Friday of the month at 8:00 PM. The Center is located at 2712 Telegraph Avenue, Berkeley.

The Rainbow Gender Association (RGA), formerly the San Jose GGA, meets on the 1st and 3rd Friday of the month at 8:00 PM at the New Community of Faith Church, 6350 Rainbow Drive, San Jose. RGA can also be contacted by writing: Rainbow Gender Association, POB 700730, San Jose, CA 95170.
